

October 2010
Bonnie Gillespie bio and photo

Bonnie Gillespie began her casting career in 2003 with three shows for the Fox Broadcasting Company. After four months in television, Bonnie cast a $25,000 budget SAG feature film and her specialty was born: Helping visionary filmmakers tell amazing stories at a low-budget level with the finest actors working today. Through a casting philosophy that includes choosing excellent material, working with outstanding people, and pursuing storytellers who aren't in it for the money, Bonnie has developed a reputation for attracting award-winning actors to bring festival-bound indies to life.

Since going into casting, Bonnie has been singled out in Back Stage West's "The Best of Los Angeles" issue four times. She has been interviewed on BBC Breakfast, on UTV-Ireland's Gerry Kelly Goes to Hollywood, on CBC Radio One's show Q, and for the E! gossip column and podcast The Answer B!tch. She has also hosted Inside Casting and The Reel Deal for Virtual Channel Network, a website run by Breakdown Services and The Hollywood Reporter. She is co-founder of Your Actor MBA and exec producer for interview series Casting Qs—based on her book by the same title—on www.somebodysbasement.com.

For more information about Bonnie Gillespie, visit www.cricketfeet.com.

photo by Holloway Pictures, www.hollowaypictures.com

Cricket Feet, Inc. * PO Box 1138 * Santa Monica * California * 90406 * 310.395.9540
www.cricketfeet.com