WHAT TO LOOK FOR:

We've already looked at 3 houses, 1 house axis, and 1 planet in our exploration of Your Money Story. This month, we're wrapping up with 1 sign axis and 1 more planet.

I've highlighted our starting points (1 house axis and 1 planet) on my natal chart, here on this page. This is the Taurus/Scorpio axis and Saturn we're looking at. Start observing the houses Taurus and Scorpio are in as well as the planets that are in those two signs (if any). Then find where Saturn lives in your natal chart (sign and house).

Revisit the keywords, etc., before our Zoom.

You were born with Taurus and Scorpio opposing one another in your natal chart. Consider these signs' elements (Earth and Water), their modality (Fixed), their ruling planets (Venus and Mars), and their keywords. Also look up the keywords for the houses these signs are in.

Taurus is in charge of our stuff. Your relationship with Taurus will show in how much stuff you have, how you treat your stuff, whether or not you loan out your stuff, how freely you treat your stuff, any fear you have around your stuff, and so on. Your enoughness around money mindset will show up here. Describe your relationship with your stuff:

Scorpio is in charge of how you transmute value for value. Since money is an exchange often given for a number of hours worked, a commodity created, or a service provided, that conversion is a Scorpio topic. Your relationship with transmutation of value for value shows up here. Describe your relationship with transmuting value for value:

Your natal Saturn is all about structure. Saturn's the dad planet (and we all have daddy issues). Saturn is the skeleton for everything we build. He'd prefer we keep things simple. Minimal. No extra, no fluff, no drama, no excuses... you WILL be stable here, even if Saturn has to use shame to make that true. Find the dad planet on your natal chart and let's get to know it a little better!

NATAL SATURN HOUSE, ELEMENT, MODALITY, AND KEYWORDS:

IF YOU HAVE OTHER PLANETS NEAR SATURN, NOTE THAT HERE:

When Saturn is secure, we can use its structure to thrive. And, of course, when our natal Saturn is less advantaged, we've got Chart Harmony to help us show him we're capable of setting boundaries and implementing systems to meet our needs. We'll discuss during our Zoom what makes Saturn happiest in a natal chart. Meanwhile, what do you suspect is true about your relationship with Saturn?
