WEEK ONE BRANDPROV

YOUR WOW FACTOR

BRANDPROV IS THE ABILITY TO IMPROVISE ON-BRAND.

There's being on-brand, and then there's being so on-brand that you can be caught off-guard with questions that make NO sense... and still represent your brand well as you improvise. You already see Brandprov at play on any talkshow or red carpet or paparazzi-covered moment or mind-numbingly tedious junket (especially one that's not terribly well-edited).

What does this have to do with the "big three"? Each of these has its own way of responding to Brandprov prompts! One of the best ways to get to know your Sun, Moon, and Rising better is to imagine what their on-brand response would be to each of the prompts that follow. There is no WRONG answer to any of these prompts... simply more on-brand and less on-brand for your "big three" as you get to know them all better.

When Self-Management for Actors students drill themselves using the prompts in the pages that follow, they'll self-tape to watch back and really SEE how the Brandprov fits. Feel free to do that! Or jam with fellow students in this class. Play with these in the comments! As you get to know your "big three" so much better, you'll also learn where they do have more in common with one another than you may have thought. Have fun with this!

INVOKING A PLANET RITUAL; SETTING UP

Use a clear quartz or a stone that represents the planet.

The Moon: moonstone, snow quartz, calcite, pearl

Mercury: fluorite, green tourmaline, blue sapphire, lodestone

Venus: rose quartz, kunzite, jade, morganite, selenite

The Sun: citrine, amber, pyrite, yellow topaz

Jupiter: sodalite, obsidian, turquoise

Saturn: garnet, jet, black tourmaline, malachite

Create an altar, and place symbols related to that planet on its surface (flowers, leaves, herbs, images, oils, candles, keepsakes). Any hard surface can be an altar with the right intention. Always use caution when inviting an open flame into your work.

WEEK TWO INVOCATION

ATTRACTING ABUNDANCE

INVOKING A PLANET RITUAL; THE RITUAL

Place your touchstone in a shallow bowl, and cover it with water. Place your hands in the water to charge the stone and receive the energy of that stone.

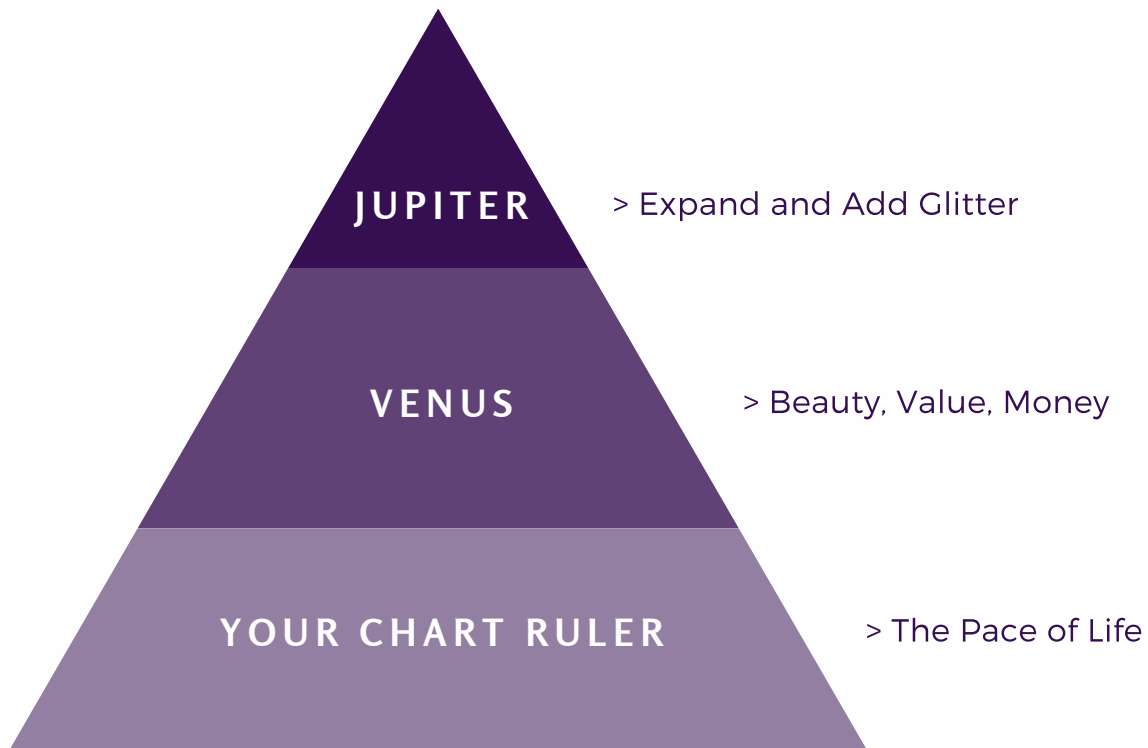

Say:

I invoke the spirit of [PLANET]. Shine your light on me, and fill my mind, body, and soul with your warmth, radiance, and power. I embody your energy in ways most aligned to my intention and purpose. And so it is.

Take the stone out of the water and dry it off. Keep it with you for at least seven days. Sleep with it under your pillow. Close the circle by giving thanks to the stone for connecting you more deeply with the planet. Replace it on your altar.

I am most curious about how Numerology plays into (1) my life's purpose, (2) 9-year Personal Year cycles, (3) the rhythm of the daily numerology we're all living, (4) the patterns I'm noticing in the Birth Numbers of people I most often click with, (5) all of the above.

NUMEROLOGY: PERSONAL YEARS

ASTROLOGY FOR CREATIVES

Even without someone's birthtime or birthplace, you'll be able to calculate what sort of year they're having and what their setpoint is for experiencing their world. Start calculating the birth number and personal year number for yourself and those closest to you (or even do it for famous people! There are always so many fascinating patterns to track there). We'll start with the 9-year cycle.

1 YEAR: New beginnings, assertive energy, planting seeds, setting the tone for the next 9 years.

2 YEAR: Receptive energy, "abort or knit booties" for the seeds planted last year, emotional, doubting.

3 YEAR: Manifestation based on how well those seeds were nurtured; creative celebration, social.

4 YEAR: Hard work, focus, drive, rolling up the sleeves and making stuff happen.

5 YEAR: Rebellion, play, reckless and free; a year of adventure and a hunger for freedom.

6 YEAR: Domestic year focused on house and home, family, your health, making needed repairs.

7 YEAR: Going inward, turning spiritual, isolating to connect more deeply, building courage.

8 YEAR: The butterfly emerges, a power year (yours or power used against you), a year of being seen.

9 YEAR: Time to end what needs not come into the next cycle; declutter, end relationships, clarify, and reset.

NUMEROLOGY: BIRTH NUMBERS

ASTROLOGY FOR CREATIVES

Now we'll turn to your birth number, which you'll notice has significant alignment with the personal years on the last page. Begin to track patterns in your own life and get curious about those people in your life whose numerology you can calculate.

1 BIRTH NUMBER: Great at starting things (maybe not great at finishing 'em), assertive, eager, confident.

2 BIRTH NUMBER: Nurturing, possibly doubtful about braver things, emotional, possibly intuitive.

3 BIRTH NUMBER: Creative, social, connected to your community and network. Good at manifesting.

4 BIRTH NUMBER: Hard worker, diligent, focused, literal, pragmatic, an empiricist.

5 BIRTH NUMBER: Playful, fun-loving, confident life of the party, happy in the spotlight.

6 BIRTH NUMBER: Domestic, family/home focused, aligned with daily tasks more than the big picture.

7 BIRTH NUMBER: Spiritual, introverted, fascinated with psychology, philosophy, and deeper meaning.

8 BIRTH NUMBER: Bold, confident magnet for attention. Natural leader, powerfully in the public eye.

9 BIRTH NUMBER: Wise, detached (or overly-attached to "stuff"), calm, balanced.

My Saturn is in _____ in the _____ house. The best way to work with Saturn is to enter into a dialogue. Here is my letter to Saturn:

How would Saturn answer answer your letter? Write a response on the next page.

WEEK FIVE CORRESPONDENCES

OVERCOME YOUR FEARS & LIMITS

INVITE BALANCE INTO YOUR PLANETARY RELATIONSHIPS

Add these plants to your Week Two list of crystals.

The Moon: chamomile, daisy, gardenia, jasmine, aloe, cucumber

Mercury: bergamot, parsley, fennel, lavender

Venus: hibiscus, rose, fig, elderberry, apple, birch, almond oil

The Sun: honey, frankincense, goldenseal, bay laurel, sunflower

Mars: basil, garlic, radish, ginger, dragon's blood, chilies

Jupiter: sage, cedar, nutmeg, juniper, mistletoe

Saturn: comfrey, beets, hemp, poppy, patchouli, thyme

Consider the element (Fire, Earth, Air, Water) and the modality (Cardinal, Fixed, Mutable) for each planet based on the signs that correspond with each as well. All the keywords we've been working with also come into play. Blend this work with the planetary remediation options we discussed in Week Three too!

OVERCOME YOUR FEARS & LIMITS

INVITE BALANCE INTO YOUR PLANETARY RELATIONSHIPS

Also invite color into the life themes that each planet brings into focus.

The Moon: silver, white; intuition, family, home, real estate, fertility, feelings of safety, self-care

Mercury: yellow, orange, patterns; communication, tech, intellect, transportation, siblings

Venus: pink, green, light blue; love, harmony, abundance, pleasure, attraction, money

The Sun: gold, yellow; success, leadership, confidence, vitality, recognition, health

Mars: red; courage, conflict, anger, motivation, ambition, passion, virility

Whether you're (safely) using candles, putting a swatch of fabric on your altar or in your pocket, choosing planetary-based wardrobe, or even writing with a specific color of pen during a planet's hour, the mindfulness about what you undertake is key.

SET INTENTIONS AROUND YOUR LIFE'S ENERGY

List off some of the keywords of each of the traditional 7 planets and luminaries that you want to invite into your career and life.

The Moon: _____

Mercury: _____

Venus: _____

Mars: _____

Jupiter: _____

Saturn: _____

Also list off any other words you want to invite, even if the words don't necessarily show up with any of the traditional 7.

WEEK SIX MAPMAKING

PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER

LET'S PLAY!

On the next few pages, write up a few different versions of your logline: short, long, concise, rambling, fragmented, story-style, all of it! This is not to try and be perfect; this is to experiment, play, and later look back to see where sparks of brilliance may exist!

As you do different lengths of your logline, notice which words are "stickiest" (meaning, they stay in every version). These words — especially when they align with keywords from your "big three" and the places in your chart you wish to amplify the most (whether that's your MC, the 2/6/10 house combo, the benefics, or even a malefic you're excited to invite to the party a little more) — are your keepers.

Revisit the instructions on the Week 6 curriculum page at the Astrology for Creatives website for ideas about rhythm and syllables and alliteration and parts of speech — all of which should blend with your on-brand lingo (unless your brand is DOES NOT BLEND, EVER, of course).

Again, notice opportunities to bring in planetary keywords! Then do so!

WEEK SIX MAPMAKING

PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER

CONSIDERATIONS: THE "BIG THREE"

What is the highest expression of the sign, the element, the modality, the planet, the house you're playing with, throughout this workout? What is something from the shadow side of the sign, the element, the modality, the planet, the house that you'd like to explore? Or minimize? Look to opposite signs or opposite houses for some creative ideas from the opposite perspective!

Return to the Brandprov you did in Week 1 with your "big three" for reminders of what your life's car feels like, as it navigates the roadtrip that is your life. As you're putting together your marketing language, also consider the colors of your Rising Sign and Chart Ruler working their way into your website, the colors you wear when you shoot photos next time, and in other marketing tools!

Your "big three" are always advertising your brand. Now it's time for you to get more intentional with the messaging. Remember the pace of your Chart Ruler; the vibe of the car's driver, navigator, and back-seat-driver; and the distinct and wonderful keywords they each bring to the ride. As you bring some of these words into your logline, have FUN!

The header features four zodiac signs in a row: Leo (a stylized orange and yellow lion's head), Virgo (a green and yellow scale of justice), Libra (a blue and white scale of justice), and Scorpio (a red and black scorpion). Below the signs, the names 'Leo', 'Virgo', 'Libra', and 'Scorpio' are written in a light, semi-transparent font. The main title 'WEEK SIX MAPMAKING' is centered in large, white, bold, sans-serif capital letters.

WEEK SIX MAPMAKING

PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER

CONSIDERATIONS: YOUR MIDHEAVEN & THE 10TH HOUSE

Revisit our work about your Midheaven (MC) and the 10th House for how your public reputation lights up and the story of your career. If your MC is in the 9th House, your career story is about MASTERY. If your MC is in the 10th House, your career story is about PRESENTATION. And if your MC is in the 11th House, your career story is about LEGACY. Write up a little story about how the sign and ruling planet of your MC show up in your career ambition, in your execution of career activities, in how your buyers talk about what it is that you do and how you do it.

What is the element of your 2nd, 6th, and 10th houses? This is how you are sourced for success! The work we need to do in order to manifest our career goals with ease is centered around calling in this element. As you explore the car of your life on its roadtrip, imagine the signs and the element of the 2nd, 6th, and 10th houses being available to you along that journey.

If it's Fire you're working with, is it how you cook up your food and tell ghost stories as you camp on a break from the roadtrip? If it's Earth that you're sourced from, is it a garden you plant and then return to along your journey, ready to receive its bounty? If it's Air you're dealing with, is it a gust that picks you up and allows the car to float somehow? Or maybe it's a gust that blows away obstacles in the road? And if it's Water that's sourcing your journey, is it a cooling rain? A babbling brook? An expansive ocean you take a dip in? Really paint the picture!

CONSIDERATIONS: THE NORTH NODE

Your North Node is about fulfilling your life's purpose – remember, your "life's purpose" is not necessarily about your career or making money! Only if your North Node is in Taurus or Scorpio and/or in the 2nd or 8th house is it definitely about money. Otherwise, be open to the story of your purpose expanding beyond your career. And then use that inspiration to inform your marketing materials. Yes! They do blend!

What is the story arc from your South Node (and its house) to your North Node (and its house)? What potential paths could that story arc take? Consider the journey from South Node to North Node to be a road or trail or path or non-standard road-like-space on which the car of your life makes its roadtrip. Could you get crafty and create a physical map – vision board style – of this route? All its twists and turns? The cast of characters you'll intersect with along the way? Detours you'll take?

Perhaps your malefics are there, and of course your benefics! You could create something really fun that helps you visualize the tour the car of your life is taking! You could even start out with the parts of your journey you've already traveled – depict some of the major players you've encountered in life in ways that feel healing! Thank them for the lessons they've taught you, and then continue crafting the map with intention for the highest expression of your chart's best parts!

BODY PARTS RULED BY SIGNS

Just like the signs have an order in the zodiac, they have an order on the bod and we're gonna take it Aries to Pisces, like always. This goes — generally — head to toe.

Aries: Ruler of the head, face, teeth, tongue, hair, arteries, and blood.

Taurus: Ruler of the sinuses, ears, neck, throat, vocal cords, tonsils, and thyroid.

Gemini: Ruler of the shoulders, lungs, bronchial tubes, arms, hands, and capillaries.

Cancer: Ruler of the breasts, diaphragm, womb, lymphatic system, vagina, stomach, and the right eye.

Leo: Ruler of the heart, circulation, blood pressure, spine, back, and the left eye.

Virgo: Ruler of the digestive system, pancreas, small intestines, eyes, and ears.

Libra: Ruler of the kidneys, bladder, the sense of touch, insulin, veins, and lower back.

Scorpio: Ruler of the reproductive organs, genitals, prostate, rectum, colon, urethra, pubic bone, and urinary tract.

Sagittarius: Ruler of the liver, sacrum, lumbar vertebra, hips, and thighs.

Capricorn: Ruler of the skin, hair, ligaments, tendons, joints, knees, spleen, and bones (therefore sometimes also teeth).

Aquarius: Ruler of the shins, calves, ankles, forearms, and circulation.

Pisces: Ruler of the pituitary gland (production of endorphins), pineal gland (production of melatonin), and feet.

Notice the signs in which you have malefics. Any health patterns?

YOUR POWER DAY & ALIGNED NUMEROLOGY

There are seven days of the week and seven visible planets and luminaries in our naked-eye sky. Here are the planets to focus your attention on, day by day. NOTE: These days start at sunrise (not at midnight, like our calendar days)!

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Sun	Moon	Mars	Mercury	Jupiter	Venus	Saturn

Next, you can calculate the numerology of every day of the year, if you'd like to (or just use the Aligned Hustle Calendar on the next page). The idea here is to begin identifying Power Days based on the planetary days of the week and the numerology of each day. With just these two tools – even before you're well-versed in astrological transits and other big woo events – you'll be able to align your schedule with energies that invite in manifestation for whatever it is you desire!

Simply add down the month (August = 8), the day (11th), and the year (2021) to get today's numerology.

$$8 + 1 + 1 + 2 + 0 + 2 + 1 = 15$$

$$1 + 5 = 6$$

Today is Mercury's day with the numerology of 6.

Remember: Pluto, Neptune, Saturn, and Jupiter are all retrograde as August begins.

August 2021

SELECT YOUR REMEDIATION DAYS

Knowing what you now know about the planetary days of the week, the numerology of the days, what energies you'd like to balance in your natal chart (whether that's to boost UP the energies of under-performing benefics or to turn DOWN the impact of over-active malefics... or simply to honor your Chart Ruler and the other occupants of your life's car), and the story arc of your South Node to North Node, write up some ideas about WHEN you can commit to showing up to connect more mindfully with your chart parts. (We'll get to a few suggestions of WHAT to do on the next three pages.)

REMEDICATION STATION

CREATE A PRACTICE FOR YOUR POWER DAYS

On Sunday (the Sun's day), do things that honor the Sun: Wear gold or orange. Start your day with a Sun Salutation. Get outside! Be playful. Bask. Eat oranges and curries and turmeric and citrus fruit. This honors the Sun's role in your life (especially helpful if you have trouble being seen or feeling as if you belong).

On Monday (the Moon's day), do things that honor the Moon: Wear silver or white. Soak in the bath. Avoid the news. Get a massage. Nap. Pay attention to those heightened emotions. Eat favorite dishes from your mom's kitchen, comfort foods, creamy and soothing recipes that align with how you want to FEEL.

On Tuesday (Mars' day), do things that honor Mars: Wear red. Be active. Work out harder than you usually do. Spar or box or do some other contact sport. Participate in a drum circle. Get something pierced or get a tattoo. Go hatchet-throwing. Let Mars know you respect its war energy! Eat foods that are spicy, garlicky, high in protein, even a juicy steak. Do a Fireball shot.

On Wednesday (Mercury's day), do things that honor Mercury: Wear yellow, especially patterns. Chant. Do breathwork. Meditate. Sit with your thoughts. Dance. Move around as you talk on the phone. Take an online class. Send emails. Drink coffee or caffeinated tea. Eat fast-to-prepare foods that keep you peppy and moving and don't weigh you down or cloud your thoughts.

REMEDICATION STATION

CREATE A PRACTICE FOR YOUR POWER DAYS

On Thursday (Jupiter's day), do things that honor Jupiter: Wear purple or royal blue. Wear jewelry that's sparkly. Engage in spiritual rituals. Spend time at your altar. Create a vision board for wildest dreams. Make a gratitude list. Arrange space using Feng Shui. Drink top-shelf booze or enchanting elixirs. Eat the most delicious, decadent foods you love. Let Jupiter know you appreciate organic expansion and luck that flows. Indulge.

On Friday (Venus' day), do things that honor Venus: Wear pink or green. Count up your coins and exchange them for bills. Wear a piece of jewelry that you love. Create visual art. Have sex. Drink wine. Eat food that is presented beautifully so it's a delight for all the senses. Be sure to include melons and grapes and chocolate and anything sexy! Connect with Venus for its magnetic properties of attraction.

On Saturday (Saturn's day), do things that honor Saturn: Wear black. Be quiet. Do things you're supposed to do, things that take discipline and focus. Drink only water. Consider fasting. If that's not your thing, go very light on your intake and avoid anything that would be an indulgence (indulgences are for Thursdays). Sip bone broth. Break stuff (coconuts are particularly satisfying). Declutter! Show Saturn you respect its focus on minimalism and structure.

Remember to invite in the crystals from Week 2 and the correspondences from Week 5 as well!

REMEDICATION STATION

CREATE A PRACTICE FOR YOUR POWER DAYS

On a 1 day, start new things. Plant seeds. Initiate. Be bold! Assert yourself with confidence! Shine bright!

On a 2 day, feel your feelings. Let your intuition guide you. Embody the seeds you've planted. Engage in self-care.

On a 3 day, celebrate the manifestations you've already revealed in life! Bring joy into your collaborations!

On a 4 day, roll up your sleeves and put in the work. Get stuff done! Build. You can even whistle while you work.

On a 5 day, play! Be seen! Rebel! Have fun! Be frisky! Have great sex! Rejoice! Get in good trouble!

On a 6 day, repair. Focus on your house and home, your family and your stability. Throw a dinner party. Make it nice!

On a 7 day, go within. Have reverent stillness for the butterfly you are becoming. Engage in a spiritual practice. Learn who you really are.

On an 8 day, emerge! Stretch those butterfly wings and come out ready to fly! Do things that help you feel the fullness of your power.

On a 9 day, close off a chapter. Declutter. Clean out closets. Prune. Let go of relationships, habits, and belongings that no longer serve you.

ANY QUESTIONS...

AS YOU COMPLETE ASTROLOGY FOR CREATIVES?

REMEMBER, WE'RE OFFERING ONGOING MEMBERSHIP.

We know, this workbook is already a bajilliondy pages long. (We told you, we can geek out on this stuff forEVER.) In case you have any questions before we close up our inaugural class offering, we're sharing a few more answers here.

Q: I'm still not sure what to focus on, now that I have all of this information. What's the right next step?

A: The good news is, there's no wrong answer to this question. You are now loaded with way more information about yourself than you had six weeks ago and that means you can take an informed guess about what to do next. If you're not yet ready to overhaul your website, update your bio, or shoot new photos to match the story of your aligned brand, that's totally fine! Pledge to spend a little time each week getting to know better parts of your chart that intrigue or confuse you! Over time, you'll begin to receive clarity about where to shift your energy. Astrology is all about confirming what your gut already knows. You've got this!

Q: This has opened up a big ol' can o' worms. Can I go deeper with you?

A: Yes. Both Rachel and Bonnie offer 1:1 sessions. We're happy to meet with you to explore parts of your chart that need a little more attention. In a private session, there are many other directions we can go. We encourage you to book readings with other astrologers too! (Gasp! I know!) Learn from everyone. It's good for you!

Q: I feel thisclose to having my brand sorted out. May I repeat this course?

A: Absolutely! We're offering ongoing membership with monthly Zooms for the Aligned MCs (cute, right?) and if you stay on with us after this inaugural class, you will be able to repeat the course with the next cohort for no additional charge! It is included in your monthly, ongoing membership. Should you cancel your membership, you may repeat the course by enrolling as a brand new student in a future cohort. We plan to offer Astrology for Creatives 3 or 4 times a year!
