

Weighted Elements

LET'S GET GRANULAR WITH THE ELEMENTAL DISTRIBUTION IN YOUR CHART

It's not just about how many planets and placements you have in each Element... they're weighted! So, let's break down the heavyweights to better understand the distribution of elemental energy in your natal chart. Yay!

REMINDER:

If you need a refresher on accessing your free natal chart in Whole Sign houses, grab the workbook for What Your Birthday Says About You from your Aligned Advantage welcome page!

Zoom in on the Elements and Modalities table just under the chartwheel.

The Elements are the rows marked F, A, E, W – that's Fire, Air, Earth, and Water, of course.

Have a look at the relationship matrix on the following page if you're rusty on your glyphs. Also, the page after that – your rulership graphic. This will help steer your work when we fill in the worksheet (last page) together during our Zoom. Yay!

LET'S GET GRANULAR WITH THE ELEMENTAL DISTRIBUTION IN YOUR CHART

It's not just about how many planets and placements you have in each Element... they're weighted! So, let's break down the heavyweights to better understand the distribution of elemental energy in your natal chart. Yay!

WHAT TO LOOK FOR NEXT:

Chart Harmony	polarity

modality

Consider writing the symbols (or words, if you're not yet fluent in the glyphs for everything) along the outside of your natal chartwheel. This will help you navigate your chart – and mundane transits happening out there – at a glance. Yay! (I really love ending paragraphs with "Yay!")

Planetary Rulers

LET'S GET GRANULAR WITH THE ELEMENTAL DISTRIBUTION IN YOUR CHART

Even though planets don't have Elements, the signs they rule DO. So, this gives you a little hint about the type of energy they bring to the party. For example, even if your Mars is in Cancer (like mine), it brings Fire to the Water party!

WHAT TO LOOK FOR AFTER THAT:

This is where I'd add another layer of nuance to the outside of the chartwheel. Use your gut for this, since we're basically asking the planets what Element they bring to the party, then listening for their answer!
