About YAYs & BOOs

Welcome back for some more fun Chart Harmony workbook action! You're about to experience my sophisticated system of YAYs & BOOs for mapping out the overall wellness of your natal chart. Yay!

In these pages, you'll first find the YAYs & BOOs pages. Of course, I have a vid guide for filling everything out too!

WATCH NOW

Once you know which planets need a little extra love, getting going with Chart Harmony will feel so much easier! You'll want to consult your natal chart for this. If you need help rendering your chart or if you're just getting started with all of this, do my free mini-course What Your Birthday Says About You.

WATCH NOW

I've also tucked into this PDF various reference pages to help you navigate your chart *and* my Chart Harmony color code! (When I've included a link to go deeper, you'll see a cute little arrow. Click it!)

Here's my goal: You use these pages in whatever ways feel most helpful to you. I've learned — in doing Chart Harmony with hundreds of people — that there is no ONE way to take on this work. While that can feel annoying to those of us who love knowing the rules, I'll invite you to find it liberating to imagine that whatever your gut is leading you to do is exactly right.

Thing is, if we've outsourced our gut — y'know, letting dominant culture or generational patterns dictate how we "feel" about anything — it may take a good amount of experimentation before we learn that we CAN trust ourselves. Please see your participation with these pages as an opportunity to learn more deeply who you truly are. And then to fall in unconditional love with the version of yourself you most enjoy being, every day.

Most of all, while experimenting with any of this, remember: You've got this! Partial credit always counts, since it's your intention over your precision that matters. Have fun!

Each of the 7 Traditionals (2 benefics, 2 malefics, 2 luminaries, 1 shape-shifter) has a particular level of "health" in your natal chart. Mapping all of this out using your official Chart Harmony scorecards will get us clear on how healthy your natal Traditionals are from the very beginning of your natal chart!

From there, there's all the transits that happen, those lunar progressions, and of course annual profections and more. Yep... all of it counts! So, let's go in slowly, shall we? For determining the overall wellness of your natal chart, we're going to use a sophisticated system of YAYs and BOOs.

YAY = chart privilege

When you've got everything in ideal essential dignity, planets are in the houses of their joy, and nothing was retrograde at the moment of your birth, you've got a lot of YAYs and that's a form of chart privilege. Always be sure you have gratitude for where your chart has given you some advantages in life and always have empathy for those whose BOOs outweigh their YAYs. We *all* get to do Chart Harmony for various issues throughout life and we *all* shift into different states of privilege due to 2ndary progressions, transits, profected years, and so much more! Embrace your YAYs. Don't get lazy about those areas in life (a transit may be on its way to remind you that you want to keep balanced and ready). Love your YAYs.

BOO = space to grow

When you were born during retrograde season, with an out-of-bounds planet or two, and a chart ruler that cannot see what it rules, you've got some BOOs and that can feel like a boot on your neck as you try to navigate issues that don't seem to snag other folks. Luckily, Chart Harmony was built to help you beef up the areas that don't have the bright spots of YAYs *and* mitigate some of the damage all those BOOs can do. Sure, you may have to do more consistent muscle-building when it comes to your Chart Harmony rituals, but you also have some exciting shifts due to 2ndary progressions, transits, profected years, and so much more! These are times to look forward to... when you get to live a setpoint of YAY for a planet that may have had a lot of BOOs at your birth. That's so dang cool!

On each of the tallying pages that follow, you'll be instructed to give yourself YAYs, BOOs, or nothing... yep, because some of the scoring is just neutral. No advantages to gain, no dings to take on. You're going to tally up YAYs and BOOs to come up with the overall state of each planet. Example: 2 YAYs and 2 BOOs means that planet's overall score is NEUTRAL. Not zero. (That's a common mistake in scoring.) Neutral is just fine. No special powers; nothing to overcome.

IMPORTANT: If you're looking to beat yourself up about something, if you're feeling bummed out about something, or if the Moon is in Scorpio, DO NOT do this work. Take a break. Shake it off. Do some UP things (here's my list) and come back to this later. The tone we want for doing this work is one of agendalessness. We're just dispassionately labeling the data. That's it. NO JUDGMENT. Just an assessment of opportunities that exist for doing more of the amazing work we tackle in all sorts of Chart Harmony meetings. Got it? Okay. Let's GO!

YAYs & BOOs: Your Moon

The Moon is a luminary, reflecting back the light of everything she encounters. She requires rest, replenishment, and time alone so that she can be the most nurturing mirror available to the rest of the universe. She changes signs quickly (So moody!) and never goes retrograde. She is the backseat driver of your Life-Car, making sure everyone's needs are met. Her Chart Harmony signature is BLUE.

When in good shape, she is a magnet for our love, money, enoughness, and everything we value. She takes her time (because that feels good) and never sees self-care as self-indulgent. The Sun is a luminary, providing light and life to everything. Ego? What ego? Literally giving you LIFE just by being! How is *that* ego? He never goes retrograde, leads from the heart, and will not be ignored. So bright that you'd better not stare right into him; instead, let him light you up for all the ways you lead with your heart, too. He likes it fired up, sweaty, in motion, always winning. When in good shape, he'll keep you decisive, competitive in all the best ways, and energized. # YAYs & BOOs: Your Jupiter

Jupiter is a benefic that knows NO limits. He's driving the party bus to Vegas, firing off glitter cannons, buying lottery tickets for everyone. He unapologetically uses ALL the exclamation points! And when you're falling down drunk, he orders more shots! (Let's say his exuberance lacks discernment.) He's pure magic when healthy, helping us tap into the infinite possibility of the universe. Out of whack? He's excitedly doing the most in all the biggest (but well-meaning) ways. # YAYs & BOOs: Your Saturn

Saturn is a malefic that loves a NO. Daddy Saturn is here to make sure you're doing what your soul came into human form to do. Stay on track. Use the system or build a new one. Embrace structure and schedules. Set boundaries and focus on the basics. No fluff. When he's healthy, we're centered, strong, build to last, and in sync with what works. # Tallying Your YAYs & BOOs

You're now dealing with 7 planets and luminaries that have various states of YAYs, BOOs, and neutrality. When you balance out the YAYs and BOOs, you may find that you end up with a fully neutral planet or two! No advantages to gain, no dings to take on. A reminder I mentioned a few pages back: A planet with 2 YAYs and 2 BOOs is overall NEUTRAL, not zero. (That's a common mistake in scoring.)

Once you've determined which planet is going to get your Chart Harmony focus (so you can begin to improve its condition through some planetary remediation), flip ahead a few pages to select some activities that get you feeling a bit more connected with a part of your chart that has felt harder to reach 'til now.

Glyphs, Modalities, Elements

Each of the fun symbols you see on your chart has meaning. This page covers a bunch of 'em. NOTE: There are variations in some signs (like Capricorn) and planets (like Pluto) and there's no different meaning implied when any particular version is used. Think of it like cursive vs. block letters. Remember: Planets are the WHAT and signs are the HOW.

THE PLANETS & PLACEMENTS		THE SIGNS
☉	Sun	♈	Aries
☾	Moon	♉	Taurus
Asc	Rising (Ascendant)	♊	Gemini
☿	Mercury	♋	Cancer
♀	Venus	♌	Leo
♂	Mars	♍	Virgo
♃	Jupiter	♎	Libra
♄	Saturn	♏	Scorpio
♅	Uranus	♐	Sagittarius
♆	Neptune	♑	Capricorn
♇	Pluto	♒	Aquarius
Mc	Midheaven	♓	Pisces
♁	North Node

Each sign has a modality; the disposition from which it does its work. For example, Capricorn is a Cardinal sign, so it does its Capricorn business from a POV of leadership.

CARDINAL: Aries, Cancer, Libra, Capricorn (the leaders)

FIXED: Taurus, Leo, Scorpio, Aquarius (the upholders)

MUTABLE: Gemini, Virgo, Sagittarius, Pisces (the shape-shifters)

Each sign also has an element; that's how it does its work. For example, Taurus is an Earth sign, and that means it does its Taurus business in a grounded, physical kind of way.

FIRE: Aries, Leo, Sagittarius (passionate and magical)

EARTH: Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn (willing to put in the work)

AIR: Gemini, Libra, Aquarius (bubbling over with ideas)

WATER: Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces (intuitive and emotional)

The staircase table for your chart (as rendered by Astro.com) showcases symbols that indicate the relationships between placements (aspects). There are 5 major Ptolemaic aspects.

- ♋ opposition (opposite POVs)
- ♊ trine (free-flowing energy)
- ♌ conjunction (sharing space)
- ♍ square (under pressure)
- ♎ sextile (gifts we work for)

Relationship Matrix

Using the glyphs from the previous page as you consult the table on this page, notice patterns: the elements some of the signs have in common, the modalities some of them share too. Do the signs' commonalities make sense to you when you think of people you know? When you think about all the parts of your own chart?

		 FIRE	 EARTH	 AIR	 WATER
		element
		modality
C A R D I N A L
	F I X E D
		M U T A B L E

Consider writing the symbols (or words from the previous page, if you're not yet glyph fluent) along the outside of your natal chartwheel. This will help you navigate your chart at a glance. Bonus points for including some keywords! NOTE: In addition to the elements and modalities, the signs also have polarities and seasons. There's an "age" to each sign... and body parts each one governs as well! One of the coolest parts of Chart Harmony is the ability to get incredibly creative as we use storytelling to remember which factors help us heal, bring our lives into more balance, and have more fun! I love this so dang much.

Planetary Rulers/Glyph Decoder

Each sign has a ruler. That's a planet whose energy is in charge of that sign's HOW (remember, the planet is the WHAT, the sign is the HOW, and the house is the WHERE it all shows up). Using traditional rulership, we've got 7 planets and luminaries that rule the 12 signs. What kind of energy is dominant in your chart? Which planets make up the vibe of your Life-Car? Are the nooks and crannies of your natal chart (and therefore your personality) starting to make more sense now?

You don't need to understand astrology, you just need...

Chart Harmony

TIP: A great way to get fluent in rulership is to note the ruling planet for each of the signs around your chartwheel, while you're doing all that labeling. Consider that your Chart Ruler is likely in a sign that is ruled by *another* planet. THAT combination actually flavors how your personality expresses (the house influences WHERE your energy is most focused). There are so many layers to this! I love it! I hope you're loving it too. Remember to come jam with us at the Chart Harmony Discord! We're happy to help!

The Chart Harmony Code

Keeping in mind that there are several important considerations in your birth chart that will factor into how the Chart Harmony colors show up in your life, here's the code for each of the 6 colors. Consult the Planetary Rulers/Glyph Decoder page to help you identify any of the characters on this page you don't recognize.

☽☾♁♃	♄♅♆♇	♁♂♃♄♅♆♇	♁♂♃♄♅♆♇	♁♂♃♄♅♆♇	♁♂♃♄♅♆♇
2•7	4•7•9	1•3•8	1•3•5	4•6•8	3•5
ALL MOONS ARE BLUE	Gibbous, Disseminating, Last-Quarter* = BLACK	New, First-Quarter = ORANGE	Full*, Last-Quarter* = PINK	Crescent, Full* = GREEN	Balsamic = PURPLE

The checkmark represents full-strength of that specific Chart Harmony color. The plus sign represents an increase in that color, but not enough to be a full-strength checkmark. If you're consulting the Chart Harmony Calendar, you'll notice there are days with a little bit of *every* color involved. Ack! Right?!? ;)

Yes and no. Ack! because you could find it challenging keeping up with all of that energy. But no-Ack! because when there's that much woo weather going on, it's not really OURS to keep up with! When in doubt, come back to the colors of your Life-Car. Get yourself connected with your OWN chart. Keep in mind that YOU are your own woo weather, first. THEN consider venturing out beyond that.

Final Thoughts...

I often hear that astrology is overwhelming. So many signs and planets and houses (Oh, my!) and that's before we even get into aspects and transits and retrogrades and fixed stars and annual profections and secondary progressions and zodiacal releasing and firdaria and, and, and.

This is why I adore bringing my childhood love of astrological storytelling into the here and now. We can make meaning of so many of the parts of our charts! But the whole point of this exploration is for us to be empowered, to have sovereignty, to lean into what we may already be feeling is right... confident that it's exactly what our souls intended that we do!

While I believe in magic, I also love data. I love tracking patterns. And I especially love when I notice that data backs up something magical. The placebo effect is scientifically backed. Even when we know we're taking a placebo for a headache, the brain will send signals that relieve us from perceived pain. So while some folks may roll their eyes at my adherence to planetary hours or about some of the rituals I swear by in order to achieve Chart Harmony, I know what works for me. Hopefully you're now feeling more confident around your woo-curious setpoint, too.

And when you get turned around? Just come back to these tools. Connect with the work you've put into this with me, align with the energies that are here to support you, and breathe. Trust your KNOWING. You've got this!

Thank you for inviting Chart Harmony into your life today! I am so grateful to you for trusting me with the interpretation of some really challenging (and also lovely, and delightful, and exciting) woo weather ahead.

As we're all beginning to learn how Pluto in Aquarius expects US to transform the systems that were exposed as problematic during Pluto's stay in Capricorn, we'll have plenty of opportunities to get centered, to tap into our KNOWING, and to use the many tools available to us to make our way through it all. Just tuning in as the Moon makes her way through her phases and the signs of the zodiac, we have access to everything we need.

We have a lot of work to do... and I hope you've found Chart Harmony to be a helpful and effective way to keep you in touch with your role as a leader. A leader who requires space and grace/rest and room to allow connection and understanding to be co-created with infinite BEING, God, Source, the Universe, and each other.

It takes your whole life to live your chart.

Transits activate your natal placements.

You'll invite energy into your life that's missing from your birth chart.

(This explains those patterns you just can't seem to break.)

Your chart tells a lifelong story.

And the improvised moments are how we know free will exists.

Allow the sweet unfolding of the story your soul came here to tell.

I hope you will continue to enjoy the magical unfolding of your each and every day. Sure, some stuff coming up is a little daunting, but we have tools to help soothe the vibe. When you crave support that's more hands-on, you know where to find me!

'til next time,
