Enjoy Your Goodies!

In these pages, you'll find a worksheet for your Pisces Lunar Eclipse Reset on September 17th. Flip a few pages beyond that for a guide to the houses (so you'll know more about where this powerful eclipse will show up in your life). If you need help rendering your chart or if you're just getting started with all of this, watch my free mini-course What Your Birthday Says About You.

Pisces Lunar Eclipse Reset

Tuesday, September 17th at 7:34pm PDT

The Lunar Eclipse is a special kind of Full Moon in which the lunar nodes are activated along the axis of 2 opposing signs. During these intense events, self-care is the priority. Here's your guide!

- 25°40' Pisces, in your _____ house (see Houses at a Glance page)
- no release/pruning rituals; get extra sleep
- cover your crystals; clean/reset your altar
- protect your Pisces-ruled parts: feet, pituitary gland (hormone production), pineal gland (melatonin secretion)

This tarot or oracle card spread is to help you connect with the gratitude you're feeling for this eclipse's powerful transformation energy. The intensity is real, so don't overthink your cards! Allow them to help frame your eclipse self-care. When in doubt: rest, hydrate, and bubblewrap!

MY GRATITUDE

MY TRANSFORMATION

MY SELF-CARE

How was your Virgo season?

I'll set things straight right now: The reason Virgo gets labeled as "critical" is because her job is to HEAL. There's no better way to heal than to instantly notice anything and everything that could possibly need the healing! Virgo's gift is discernment. Yes, she's the nervous type (she rules the nervous system, after all) because she's always sifting and sorting everything she senses, making sure it's all classified correctly (and punctuated perfectly). How can this gift of sensitivity bring more refinement to your life now?

Thinking back on Virgo season (August 22nd to September 22nd), list off the Chart Harmony rituals that you will now practice whenever you need to connect with all the little things that make up the healing focus of Virgo and her ruler, Mercury the trickster.

Seasonal Chart Harmony Review

Looking back at this Summer (Cancer, Leo, & Virgo seasons), use a Chart Harmony lens as you consider what the 6 colors have taught you about yourself, your needs and preferences, and where your energy is spent. Which colors have been the easiest for you? And which do you want to connect with a little more? Give yourself credit for all the growth you've experienced!

How BLUE helped me slow down...

How BLACK provided structure...

How ORANGE gave me a spotlight...

Seasonal Chart Harmony Review

Also consider which of the many types of Chart Harmony remedies felt natural for you to do, most impactful in your life, and easiest to integrate into your days in meaningful ways. Whether it's wearing one of the 6 colors, engaging with crystals, creating aligned playlists, doing workouts in conjunction with the colors, prepping coordinated meals, or using oils, it all counts!

How PINK got me shifting with ease...

How GREEN created magnetism...

How PURPLE added magic to life...

The Chart Harmony Code

Keeping in mind that there are several important considerations in your birth chart that will factor into how the Chart Harmony colors show up in your life, here's the code for each of the 6 colors. I've included a Planetary Rulers/Glyph Decoder page from the plan•it planner to help you identify any of the characters on this page you don't recognize.

☾☾♊♋	♏♏♏♏	♂♂♏♏♏♏	♀♀♏♏♏♏	♀♏♏♏♏	♏♏♏♏
2•7	4•7•9	1•3•8	1•3•5	4•6•8	3•5
ALL MOONS ARE BLUE	Gibbous, Disseminating, Last-Quarter* = BLACK	New, First-Quarter = ORANGE	Full*, Last-Quarter* = PINK	Crescent, Full* = GREEN	Balsamic = PURPLE

The checkmark represents full-strength of that specific Chart Harmony color. The plus sign represents an increase in that color, but not enough to be a full-strength checkmark. If you're consulting the Chart Harmony Calendar, you'll notice there are days with a little bit of every color involved. Ack! Right?!? ;)

Yes and no. Ack! because you could find it challenging keeping up with all of that energy. But no-Ack! because when there's that much woo weather going on, it's not really OURS to keep up with! When in doubt, come back to the colors of your Life-Car. Get yourself connected with your OWN chart. Keep in mind that YOU are your own woo weather, first. THEN consider venturing out beyond that.

Head over to our Discord to chat through how this is going for you! We've gotchu!

Planetary Rulers/Glyph Decoder

Each sign has a ruler. That's a planet whose energy is in charge of that sign's HOW (remember, the planet is the WHAT, the sign is the HOW, and the house is the WHERE it all shows up). Using traditional rulership, we've got 7 planets and luminaries that rule the 12 signs. What kind of energy is dominant in your chart? Which planets make up the vibe of your Life-Car? Are the nooks and crannies of your natal chart (and therefore your personality) starting to make more sense now?

Chart Harmony

TIP: A great way to get fluent in rulership is to note the ruling planet for each of the signs around your chartwheel, while you're doing all that labeling. Consider that your Chart Ruler is likely in a sign that is ruled by another planet. THAT combination actually flavors how your personality expresses (the house influences WHERE your energy is most focused). There are so many layers to this! I love it! I hope you're loving it too. Remember to come jam with us at the Chart Harmony Discord! We're happy to help!

The Houses at a Glance

Remember our handy formula for basic astrology: The planet is the WHAT, the sign is HOW, and the house is the WHERE. Example: A Venus in Leo in the 11th House (Bonnie Gillespie) = all the loving and valuing and beautifying is done in a very grand, passionate, public way specifically in broader communities and in service of utopian, innovative, progressive visions for us all. As you build your Chart Harmony fluency, you'll begin to uncover your own statements!

NOTE: We all have all 12 houses! Your 1st house (1H) is the one that hosts your Rising (Ascendant, ASC, AC, or AS, depending on what software or app you use to render your chart). This is the DRIVER of your Life-Car! 1H is also the most PERSONAL of all 12 houses. All other houses have "co-stars" sharing the space!

Use the Elements to Connect with the Moon

As we move through each lunar cycle, use the elements to help you find a rhythm to your activities. Schedule your creative idea spark sessions for Fire Moons. Get loads of items OFF your to-do list during Earth Moons. Use those Air Moons to express yourself clearly and confidently! And of course, use those Water Moons to restore your intuitive gifts. Let the elements guide you into Chart Harmony activities in organic ways!

Fire Moons

When the Moon moves through Fire signs, tap into your passion, motivate others, and keep moving. If it doesn't turn you on? Don't do it!

Earth Moons

Under the Earth sign Moons, be practical. Put in the work. Get physical. Connect with your health. Stick to your commitments. Get stuff done!

Air Moons

When the Moon enters Air signs, be ready to promote your big ideas, communicate and collaborate, talk it all up and write it all down!

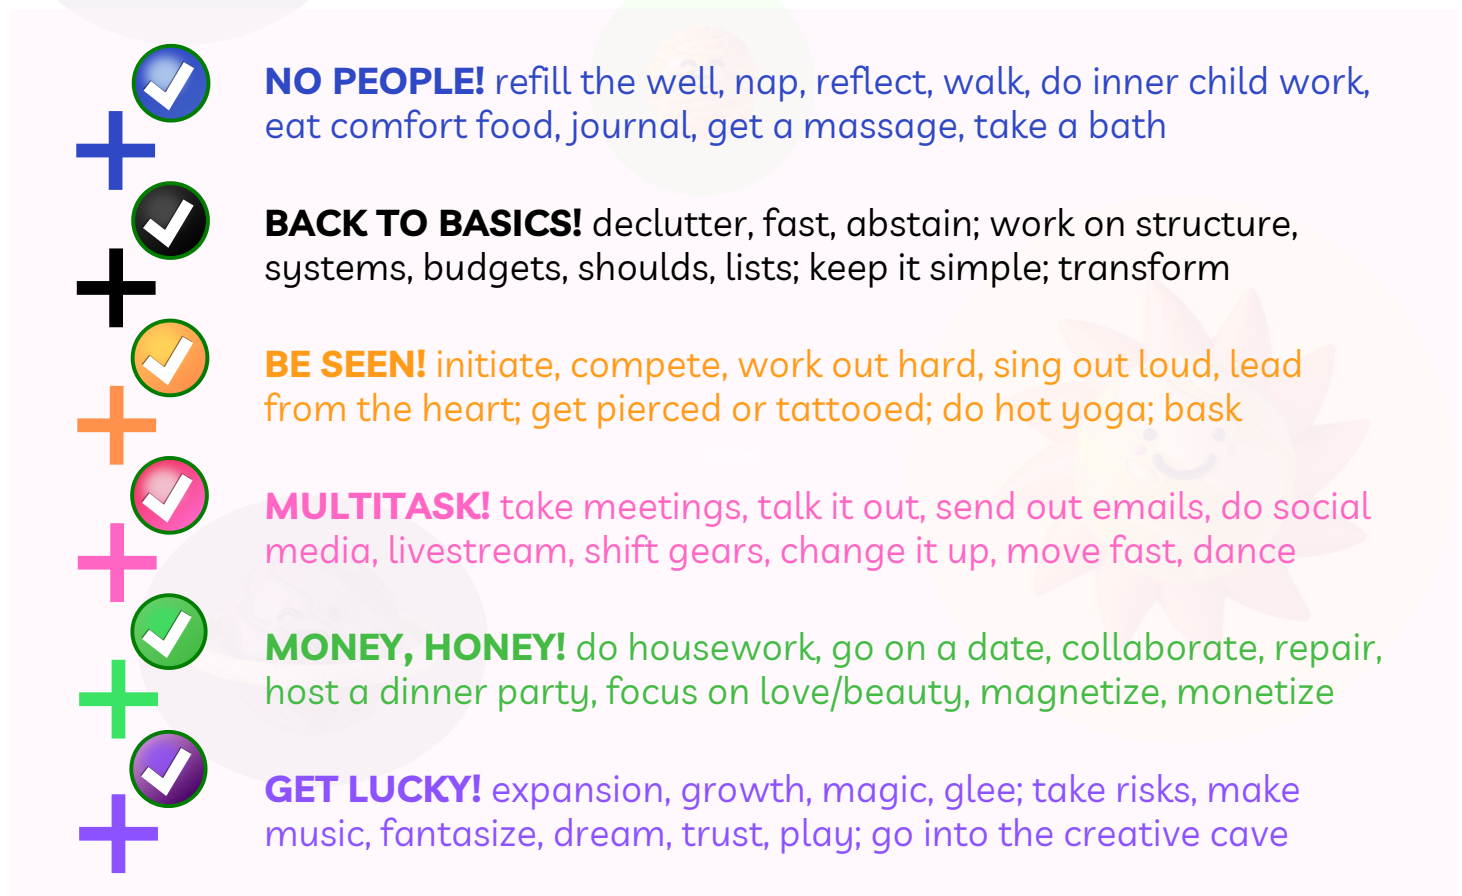

Water Moons

As the Moon floats through Water signs, it's your float time too. Trust your gut, honor your needs, and feel your feelings. They're lovely!

Chart Harmony Needs & Remedies

Use this top section to identify your needs by color. Then find a remedy in the lower section to help you connect with the support you wish to call in. When in doubt: WEAR THE COLOR YOU NEED!

Any Questions?

These lovely plan•it planner pages are already so wonderfully packed with info. Still, you may have questions! Here are some of the more common ones, answered, in case you find yourself asking 'em.

Q: Okay, so we're using Whole Sign Houses for our charts now?

A: Yep, to keep it simple, we're working with your chart using the Whole Sign House System! Placidus may be the default house system in the site or app you typically use to render your chart, and that's certainly fine for interpreting your chart on your own. In using the much longer-ago established Whole Sign House System, we're assuring the most straightforward way for you to SEE yourself in the stars. The Whole Sign House System democratizes where you were born (no more advantaging the royals who paid the astrologers) while making calculations far more straightforward, because each house starts at the same place a new sign starts. Yay!

Q: I don't know my exact time of birth. Am I screwed?

A: Not at all! Ideally, you'll be able to find out what time you were born from your birth certificate or by checking with a member of your family who remembers some details about the event, like whether the sun had come up yet! Some folks have luck calling the hospital at which they were born to access their archived records. If these options don't work out for you, there is a process called rectification that some astrologers are able to do for a fee. This is a process of studying several significant events in your life while interviewing you to determine the most likely range of birth times. For now, work with what you have! If you're not able to get your birth time sorted out, you can still have a wonderful experience getting to know yourself better. You won't be sure of your RISING, which means the houses may all feel off for you, but you'll have the planets in their right signs, and that's plenty to get aligned for an exploration that serves you well. For the sake of rendering your chart without knowing the time, choose a birth time that puts your Moon or your Sun in the 1st house. If you don't know how to do that, just choose sunrise.

Q: There's a tiny R next to one of the planets on my chartwheel. What does this mean?

A: That R indicates retrograde illusion (the varying orbit shapes and speeds of planets we're not living on making it appear as if they're moving backward from time to time as we ALL orbit the Sun). Any planet on your chartwheel with a tiny R next to it was retrograde at the time of your birth. The fun part about this is that when that same planet goes retrograde throughout your life, you're actually less distressed by its effects than other folks may be. Overall, the WHAT of that planet will likely have your focus turned more inward. Also, your development in the area of that planet's WHAT may be later in life. (Remember: The planet is the WHAT, the sign is the HOW, the house is the WHERE it all shows up in your life.)

Q: Nearly half of my houses are totally empty on the chartwheel. What does this mean?

A: It actually means you're like most people. :) The typical experience is to have a few planets or placements clustering in one quadrant of your chart or even together in a single sign or house "stellium" (clumping our lessons and gifts so they can serve one another and experience transits with similar timing) and then open spaces. Of course, even "empty" houses are in specific signs in your natal chart, so there's definitely energy there! In fact, depending on what's directly opposite that house on the chartwheel, that "empty" energy could be exactly what you're meant to use to balance out all that activity on the other side of your chart. Cool, huh?

Final Thoughts...

I often hear that astrology is overwhelming. So many signs and planets and houses (Oh, my!) and that's before we even get into aspects and transits and retrogrades and fixed stars and annual profections and secondary progressions and zodiacal releasing and firdaria and, and, and.

This is why I adore bringing my childhood love of astrological storytelling into the here and now. We can make meaning of so many of the parts of our charts! But the whole point of this exploration is for us to be empowered, to have sovereignty, to lean into what we may already be feeling is right... confident that it's exactly what our souls intended that we do!

While I believe in magic, I also love data. I love tracking patterns. And I especially love when I notice that data backs up something magical. The placebo effect is scientifically backed. Even when we know we're taking a placebo for a headache, the brain will send signals that relieve us from perceived pain. So while some folks may roll their eyes at my adherence to planetary hours or about some of the rituals I swear by in order to achieve Chart Harmony, I know what works for me. Hopefully you're now feeling more confident around your woo-curious setpoint, too.

And when you get turned around? Just come back to these tools. Connect with the work you've put into this with me, align with the energies that are here to support you, and breathe. Trust your KNOWING. You've got this!

Like Mother, Like Daughter

Faced with no career and no college degree, my resourceful, suddenly-single mother Charlsie decided that the hobby she had picked up — to explore WHY she ended up having an unplanned late-in-life baby (me) and WHY her husband of 28 years bailed — might be more than just a hobby. She booked her first paid reading in 1977 and earned $20. Twenty years later, the Oprah folks called to book her on the show's "Remembering Your Spirit" segment. Charlsie's enoughness was low, so of course she said no.

As a kid growing up, I remember coming home from school, bullied, and instead of the usual, "Oh, honey, they're just jealous," my mother would say, "Oh, honey, you know your Venus is afflicted in Leo." I've spent my life very much aware of the rhythms of planetary influence and certainly how the Moon can make one day a brilliant get-sh*t-done day and then it slides into a sign that makes everything feel sloth-like.

Over time, I've gotten less private about my woo-woo upbringing as my showbiz clients have asked, "What does it mean when you say that about how you decide it's the right time to do X or Y or Z?" and so I share a little bit here and there and, well, we've now reached a point where it's such a thing that I have creatives booking coaching sessions with me NOT just to do the Self-Management for Actors work on which I've built my empire, but to have their charts done! Turns out I'm really good at it. So... Chart Harmony is a reclaiming of my New Age childhood. And a tribute to my mom.

I promise not to say no when Oprah calls.

There's this saying that the definition of HELL is meeting the version of yourself you could've been.

I like to think we all have many versions of ourselves available throughout our lives.

And the more time we spend being the versions of ourselves that we most love being, the less likely we ever encounter a place like that.
