- 12:46:46 From Kristen Girard: @Isabelle - For the copyright it depends on how momma-bear you want to get around it. It's always a good idea to copyright before publishing because it's just easier to do and protect. And if yo do the copyright for a fee of $45 or $65 - if someone decides to be uncool - you will be able to say stop it with a baseball bat instead of a flyswatter AND get put to a $100K plus lawyer expense reimbursed per violation. :)
