how to prep:

Hi! I'm Bonnie Gillespie. That's me, pictured on this page as a happy girl whose mother had just begun studying astrology. Sitting in the floor of her dining-room-turned-office, I would draw the astro symbols as if they were little characters in a play. They had roles and as the characters would make entrances and exits in my little productions, I would voice each of them with glee.

I am just as glee-filled that I get to help you connect with yourself and the woo weather of 2025 using these very same characters!

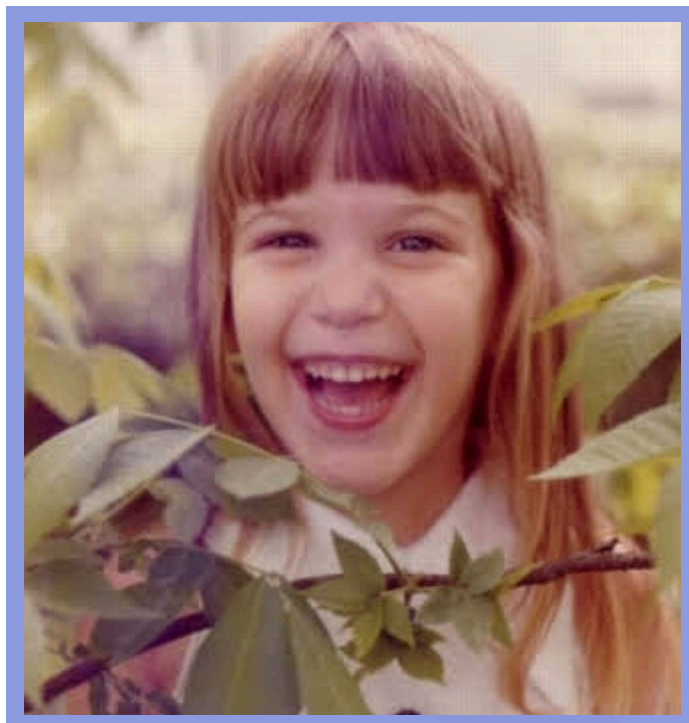

Before you get tempted to overwhelm yourself with all of the pages in this workbook, all the glyphs that make up your chart, or anything else about this experience, please know you signed up for this free training to have FUN while learning new things about how to balance your dominant energies as you access your gifts, already available to you from within your chart. Breathe. Hug yourself. All good.

I mean, EVERYTHING is optional, here. I'm providing you with a way to optimize your experience in this workbook... but sometimes we don't need experiences to be optimized, y'know? Please trust yourself and take this work at your own pace. Be as public or as private about your journey as you wish (using #ChartHarmony if you'd like to get my eyes on anything). Revisit this material. Take dance breaks often. Hydrate. Let this new way of exploring your life marinate.

If you'd consider yourself NEW to the WOO and you've yet not experienced my free series, What Your Birthday Says About You, check that out for a little guidance about each of the components of your natal chart. Here's a formula we'll be using:

The planet is the WHAT, the sign is the HOW, and the house is the WHERE.

Using this formula, you can zoom in on any issue in your life, learning where you may be in need of a little Chart Harmony to create more balance and ease.

Please note: THERE IS NO ONE RIGHT WAY TO DO CHART HARMONY. In the end, you live your chart and these tools are offered to you with all my love and with all the wisdom of the spirits of my mother, the astrologer, and her mother, a true "Rosie the Riveter" who taught me how to read fortunes using a deck of playing cards.

So much of astrology is a way of providing permission to be the versions of ourselves we already feel tugged to be. I love the a-ha moments that come from this work.

The following pages will detail how to prep for our free webinar by rendering your chart using the Whole Sign House System, learning to recognize the glyphs in use on your chart, and playing with some keywords as you begin to consider what you'd like to invite into your life for 2025 and beyond. Remember: Have FUN with this!

If you crave being able to discuss all of this with me as we go deeper on this yumminess, regularly, please consider my Live Your Chart membership, where we gather each month on Zoom to do fabulous explorations AND prep for the woo weather ahead using my Aligned Hustle Calendar.

Okay... let's DO this!

our schedule:

1: PREP YOURSELF

Use this workbook to learn how to render your free chart in the format we'll use during the webinar; get an overview of glyphs and keywords that will help you get familiar with the lingo we'll use; find space to journal.

2: OUR FORMULA

The planet is the WHAT, the sign is the HOW, and the house is the WHERE. Using this formula, we can zoom in on any issue in your life, making areas that are in need of some Chart Harmony remedies very clear!

3: THE COLORS

Chart Harmony is easiest to approach from a color-coded POV. This helps us see the calendar (and our lives) NOT in approximately a bazilliondy different astrological components but instead in 6 colors and remedies associated with each.

4: DATES & TRANSITS

This is what you came for! (Maybe! Maybe you're here for the easy color-coding process. Maybe you're here for ALL of it. Yay!) With this info, you'll be able to mark up your calendar and know what to expect, when.

5: CHART HARMONY

Here's where the magic happens! I'll guide you through a few remedies that align beautifully with various needs, different lifestyles, and all levels of woo! Remember, this is just a starting point; there's no race here! Just a deeper sense of connection with your truest self.

6: Q&A

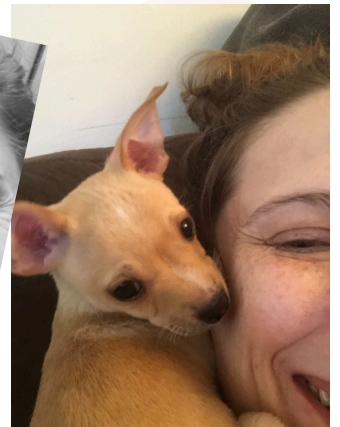

Bring it, y'all! Now we'll discuss your Chart Harmony experiences, clarify anything that got a little complicated for you, find out if you're a good fit for ongoing work with me... you name it! (Replay-watchers, use the comments area at Teachable. We've gotchuul!)

this is Bon:

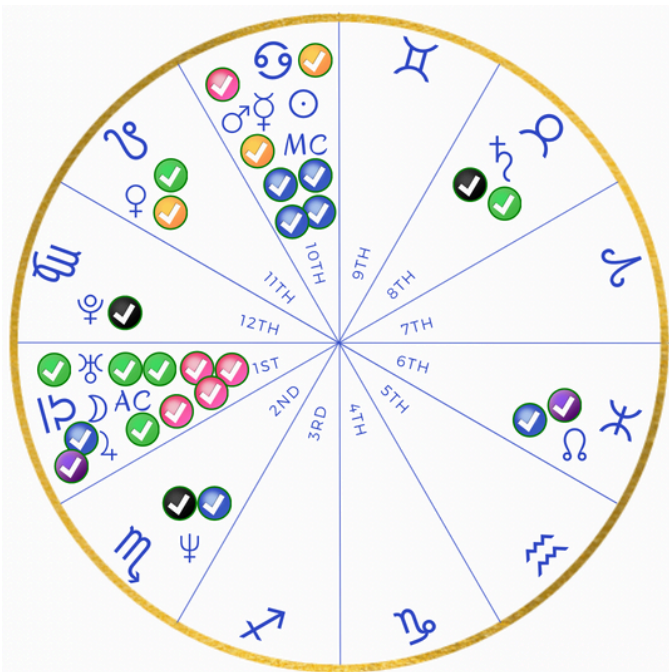

Here's me: a soul and spirit walking around in a skin suit. So much of how we usually identify ourselves is about this temporary human condition, and yet we occupy so much more space and energy than that. As far as my now-life goes, I'm an Atlanta gal who made her way to Hollywood for a life in showbiz. I grew up learning astrology alongside my mother... and my secret weapon for helping a generation of creatives live their dreams is now not so much of a secret. It's Chart Harmony, and it works! I live on unceded Tongva land (renamed Santa Monica by settlers) with the luckiest man in the world, Keith Johnson, and our sweet Gemini puppy, Mala.

this is also Bon:

Now, this handy chartwheel — color coded using my Chart Harmony method — reveals that I'm a #VenusRuledMoonBaby. Magnetic empath meets solution-oriented charmer. I have a big personality, I see challenges as opportunities, and it's my life's work to allow the flow while playing the role of everyone else's fairy godmother. When we look at your chart through this lens, the remedy for finding balance comes into immediate focus. I'm so excited to share this journey with you!

(Yes, I can create one of these Chart Harmony color-coded natal charts for you! See opportunities for Aligned Aftercare on pages 36-37 of this very workbook!)

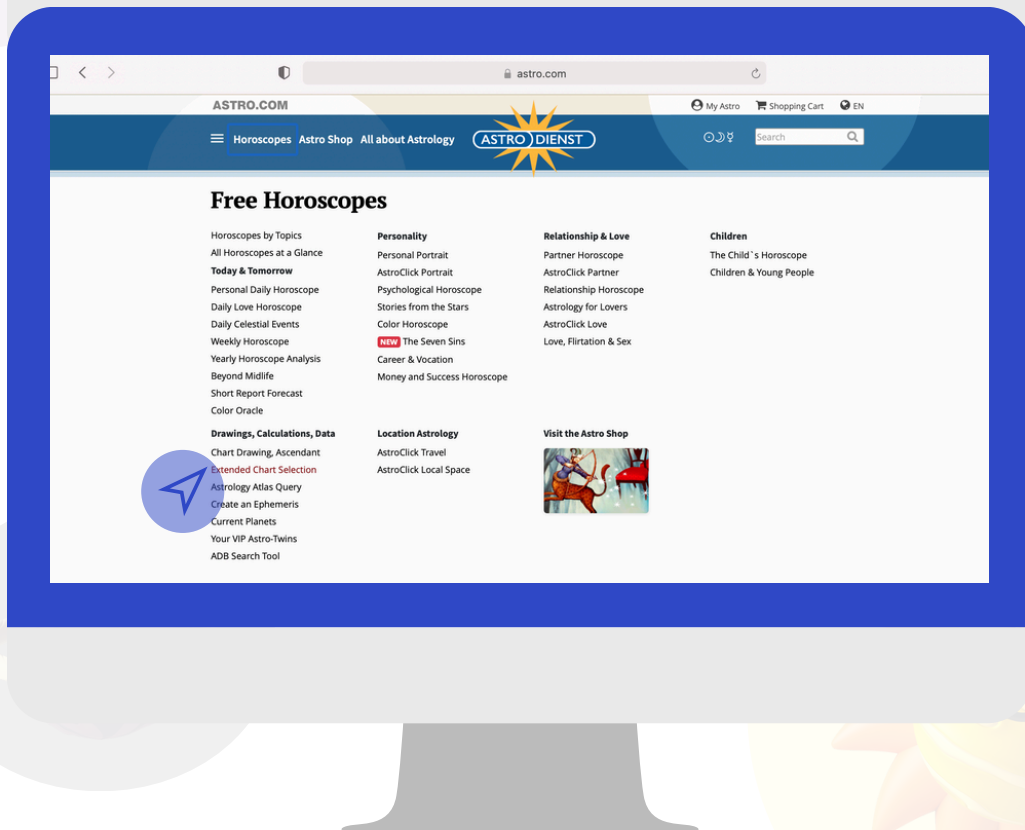

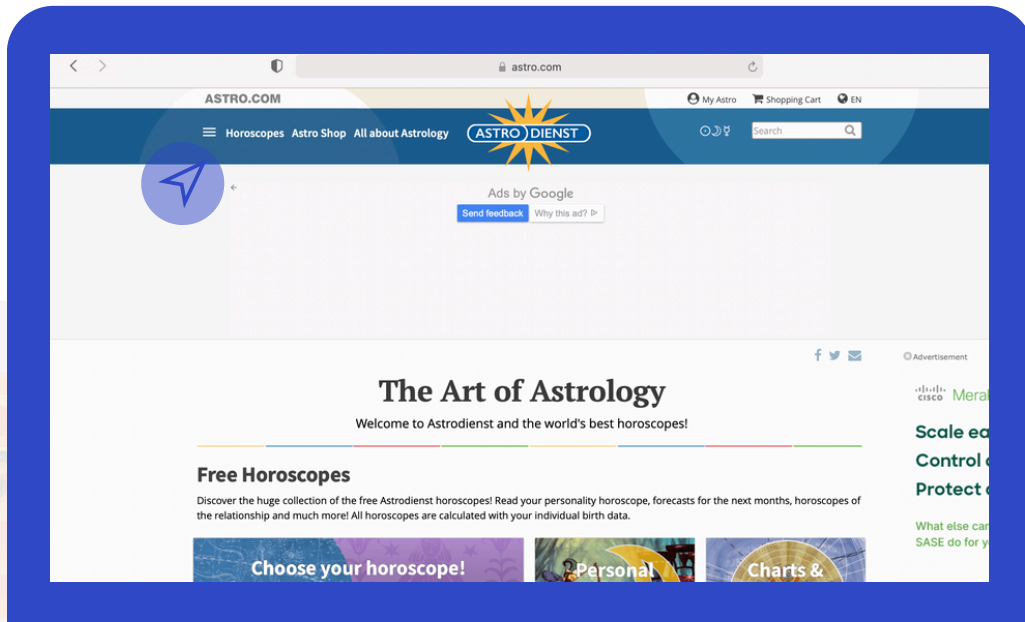

I'm most excited about:

how to render your chart:

USING THE FREE NATAL CHART FEATURE AT ASTRO.COM

If you already have your chart in the Whole Sign House System format, skip ahead. Otherwise, visit astro.com and select the Horoscopes menu from the top left area. This will expand a multi-column menu. From here, choose Extended Chart Selection from the Drawings, Calculations, Data section.

how to render your chart:

USING THE FREE NATAL CHART FEATURE AT ASTRO.COM

From here, proceed as a guest user (or create an account). Once you click the words click here to go to the data entry page in the guest user section, you'll click through to AGREE to terms and then land on a form you'll fill out with your birth information so the site can render your free natal chart!

how to render your chart:

USING THE FREE NATAL CHART FEATURE AT ASTRO.COM

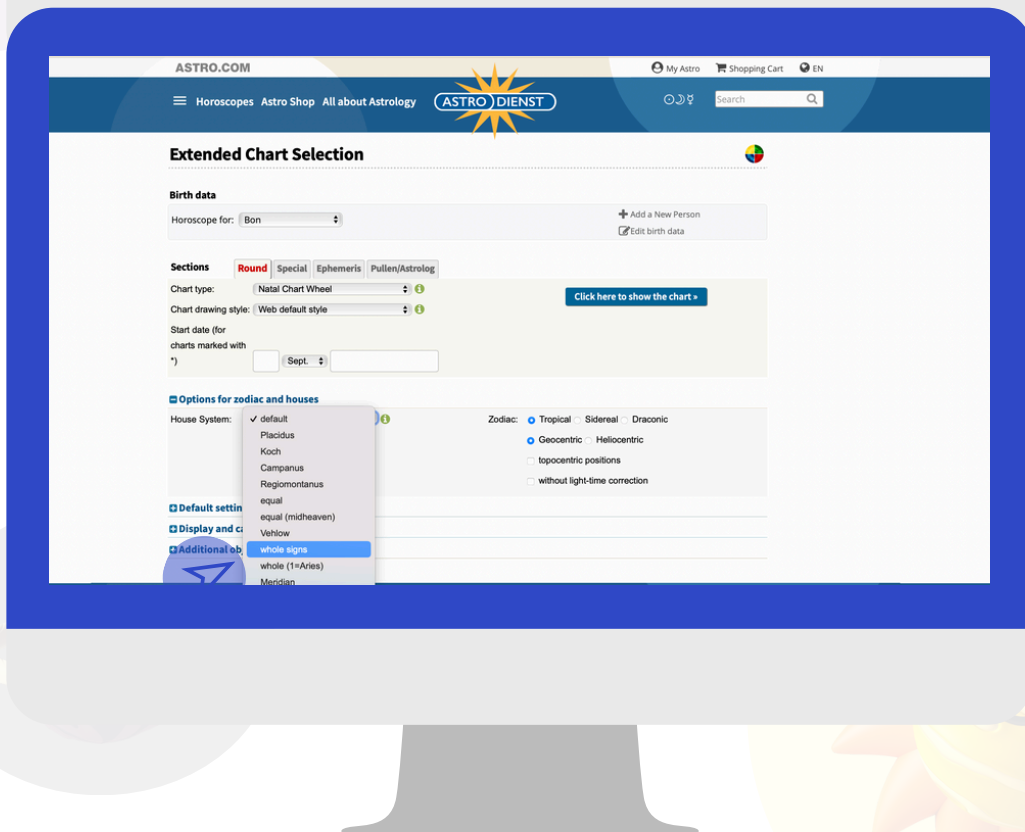

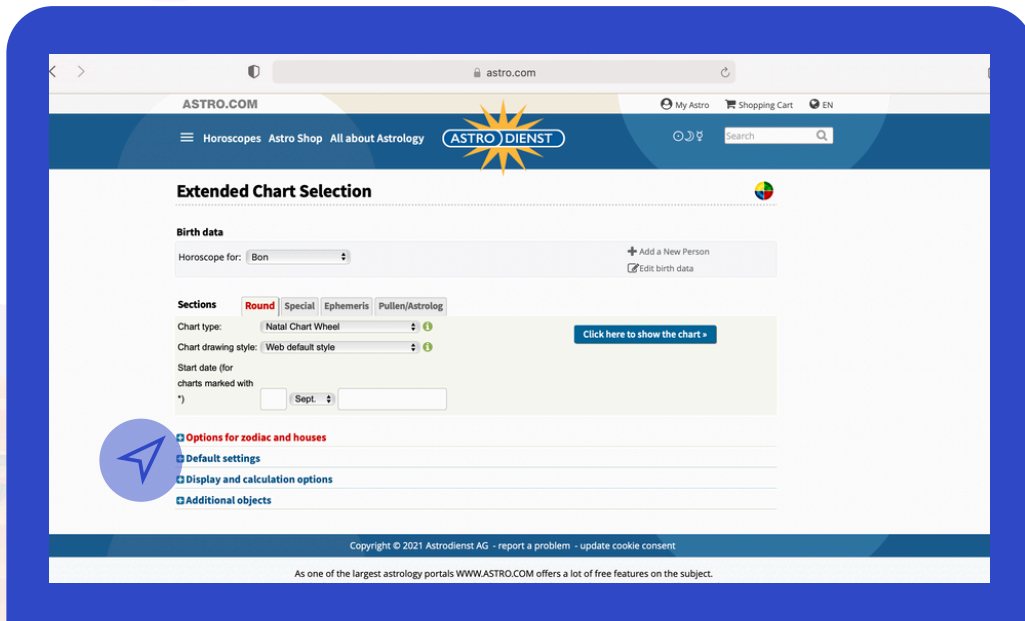

You'll notice how I've filled out the form: name, gender (ugh, dated gender options), birthday, hour and minute of birth, country of birth, and then as I fill in the birth town, the site provides options (including longitude and latitude) to select from. Once I've made the selection, it's time to render my chart!

how to render your chart:

USING THE FREE NATAL CHART FEATURE AT ASTRO.COM

Now we're gonna shift from the default HOUSE system to Whole Signs. Before you click on the ever-so-tempting button that says "Click here to show the chart," expand the "Options for zodiac and houses" menu and select the Whole Signs option. This makes learning the houses more straightforward.

Once you've clicked on the "Click here to show the chart" button, you'll be seeing your Whole Sign birth chart (maybe for the first time). Yay! There's a lot here, so don't get overwhelmed. When you click on the chart, a new tab will open with a printable chartwheel and tables with astrological glyphs.

how to render your chart:

USING THE FREE NATAL CHART FEATURE AT ASTRO.COM

If you'd like to save your chart (and not just print it), when you are prompted by your browser's PRINT command to send the chart to the printer, just choose to save the chart as a PDF (this is a drop-down menu in my print window; it may look a little different for you, but it'll be in this general area). Doing this should put a PDF of your chart somewhere on your computer to revisit later! (You'll notice I changed the print scale to 86%. This is so my chart and the staircase table all fits on ONE page. You may have to do a similar adjustment.)

Now that your Whole Sign House System chart is in your hands, you're ready for our free HOW TO SURVIVE 2025 webinar! HOORAY!

Remember our fun formula: The planet is the WHAT, the sign is the HOW, and the house is the WHERE. Using this formula, you can zoom in on any issue in your life, making areas that are in need of some Chart Harmony very clear!

Let's DO this!

HOW TO SURVIVE 2025
ChartHarmony.com

glyphs, modalities, elements:

Each of the fun symbols you see on your chart has meaning. This page covers a bunch of 'em. NOTE: There are variations in some signs (like Capricorn) and planets (like Pluto) and there's no different meaning implied when any particular version is used. Think of it like cursive vs. block letters.

THE PLANETS & PLACEMENTS		THE SIGNS
☉	Sun	♈	Aries
☾	Moon	♉	Taurus
Ac	Rising (Ascendant)	♊	Gemini
☿	Mercury	♋	Cancer
♀	Venus	♌	Leo
♂	Mars	♍	Virgo
♃	Jupiter	♎	Libra
♄	Saturn	♏	Scorpio
♅	Uranus	♐	Sagittarius
♆	Neptune	♑	Capricorn
♇	Pluto	♒	Aquarius
Mc	Midheaven	♓	Pisces
♁	North Node

Each sign has a Modality; the disposition from which it does its work. For example, Capricorn is a Cardinal sign, so it does its Capricorn business from a POV of leadership. Consider Modality a way to notice relationships between the parts of your natal chart.

CARDINAL: Aries, Cancer, Libra, Capricorn (the leaders)

FIXED: Taurus, Leo, Scorpio, Aquarius (the upholders)

MUTABLE: Gemini, Virgo, Sagittarius, Pisces (the shape-shifters)

Each sign also has an Element; that's how it does its work. For example, Taurus is an Earth sign, and that means it does its Taurus business in a grounded, physical kind of way. This is another opportunity to check for common threads in how various signs relate!

FIRE: Aries, Leo, Sagittarius (passionate and magical)

EARTH: Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn (willing to put in the work)

AIR: Gemini, Libra, Aquarius (bubbling over with ideas)

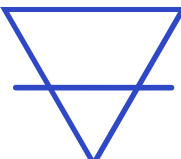

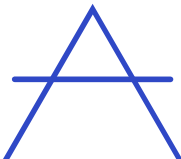

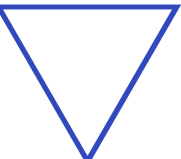

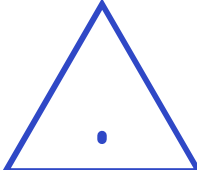

WATER: Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces (intuitive and emotional)

The staircase table for your chart (as rendered by Astro.com) showcases symbols that indicate the relationships between placements (aspects). While a deep-dive on these is outside the scope of our free training, stay curious about what you're seeing! And come join us in Live Your Chart to dive deeper, of course.

relationship matrix:

Using the glyphs from the previous page as you consult the table on this page, notice patterns: the Elements some of the signs have in common, the Modalities some of them share too. Do the signs' commonalities make sense to you when you think of people you know? When you think about all the parts of your own chart?

		 FIRE	 EARTH	 AIR	 WATER
 Element
Modality
CARDINAL
MUTABLE

Consider writing the symbols (or words, if you're not yet glyph-fluent) along the outside of your natal chartwheel. This will help you navigate your chart at a glance as the webinar moves through the woo weather to come. Bonus points for including some keywords in your labeling! NOTE: In addition to the Elements and Modalities, the signs also have polarities and seasons. There's an "age" to each sign... and body parts each one governs as well! One of the coolest parts of Chart Harmony is the ability to get incredibly creative as we use storytelling to remember which factors help us heal, bring our lives into balance, and have more fun! I love this so dang much.

the signs:

You certainly know "your sign" (this is the horoscope you may read from time to time). What you're looking at in that case is the sign the Sun was in when you were born. Of course, you have all 12 signs in your chart! Just look at the outside of the chartwheel. All 12 signs are players in your life's story and a map for how you can invite in everything you've ever dreamed of... even using "empty" houses. NOTE: These GENERAL dates for Sun signs sometimes shift due to the 360° chartwheel vs. the 365-day calendar year. Ah, human time is so adorable. Use the below details to familiarize yourself with the various energetic signatures of these signs (the HOW part of our formula).

ARIES: March 21-April 19. The zodiac's puppy! Enthusiastic, excited, self-directed, ambitious, courageous, bold, pioneering, curious, likely to act first and think later (maybe).

TAURUS: April 20-May 20. Slow and steady! Stubborn, practical, stable, loyal, determined, slow to anger, lover of good food. Adores things that feel great and are built to last.

GEMINI: May 21-June 20. Up all night talking! Intellectual, expressive, adaptable, clever, versatile, chatty, musical, usually good with their hands, and always up for debates. Loves finding out what ELSE is going on.

CANCER: June 21-July 22. Home is where the heart is! Sensitive, nurturing, creative, protective, emotional, intuitive, reserved, family-focused, strong. Will use that big-ass claw when backed into a corner.

LEO: July 23-August 22. Strut your stuff! Affectionate, generous, proud to lead, slow to change, loyal, creative, confident, charismatic, dramatic. Always leading from the heart.

VIRGO: August 23-September 22. I have a list! Intelligent, analytical, discriminating, critical, detail-oriented. This self-sacrificing healer can do a better job than anyone else, always.

LIBRA: September 23-October 22. Balance is motion! Diplomatic, artistic, beautiful, fair, indecisive, relationship-focused, opportunistic, charming. The ultimate people-pleaser (this is why they cannot make decisions).

SCORPIO: October 23-November 21. Intensely passionate! Secretive, sexy, calculating, resourceful, determined, willful. Learns your secrets, goes deep, and connects to your very soul. They specialize in transformations!

SAGITTARIUS: November 22-December 21. Born to explore! Idealistic, bold, philosophical, self-educated, world-traveler, confident, blunt, generous, optimistic, enthusiastic, lucky, adaptable, expansive. Always ready for an adventure!

CAPRICORN: December 22-January 19. There's always work to do! Ambitious, powerful, organized, structured, cautious, practical, economical, born to lead. There's no mountain this seagoat won't climb.

AQUARIUS: January 20-February 18. Let your freak flag fly! Rebellious, idealistic, friendly, cooperative, detached, altruistic, innovative, progressive. Truly DGAF in all the best ways.

PISCES: February 19-March 20. Pure magic! Sensitive, psychic, intuitive, artistic, mystical, musical, compassionate, empathetic, insecure, secretive. Lives in other worlds and loses time (and sometimes their pants).

All righty... now it's time to dive in on the planets and placements of your chart. While there are all sorts of minor planets, fixed stars, and asteroids out there, for our free training, we're gonna keep the focus on the following characters. Remember, we're dealing with the WHAT in the formula for navigating your chart. (Visit my fabulous free trainings What Your Birthday Says About You and Chart Harmony 101 for more about your Life-Car.)

THE SUN: This life-giving luminary is your ego, your sense of self, your essence, your spirit, your source of will, your vitality, your authority. It's the navigator of your Life-Car!

THE MOON: Your emotional body is deeply tied to the Moon. Your feelings, instinct, and intuition come from the setpoint of your natal Moon and fluctuate with what the Moon does, day to day. This is your inner home; it's how you feel safe. It's also the backseat driver in your Life-Car, making sure everyone's needs are met.

YOUR RISING: Also known as your Ascendant (AC, AS, or ASC), this is your belief system and daily life. It's how you come across, your physical characteristics, and your personal style. This is the driver of your Life-Car; the Ruling Planet of your Rising sign has a lot to do with how you show up in the world.

MERCURY: Ruler of communication, travel, personal technology, how you learn, what you believe, and how you speak about what you know... all packed in one shifty little prankster of a planet. Your reasoning and dexterity are tethered here.

VENUS: How you love, see beauty, find balance, and deal with money — yep, money mindset and love languages — are all in one place! Your core values, relationships, harmony, enoughness, charm, sensuality, artistic talents... they're all shaped by Venus.

MARS: The warrior planet is all about your motivation, fire for fighting and... another F word. ;) Look here for your passion, physical energy, stamina, courage, temper, drive for achieving, and impulsive urges.

JUPITER: This is how you get lucky! If the planets all go to Vegas, Jupiter is driving the party bus! Jupiter is all about expansion, gifts, and blessings in life, adding glitter to your vision, faith, philosophical setpoint, and flair for doing the most! You'll never get an apology for all the exclamation points Jupiter wants to use!

SATURN: It's back to basics time. Saturn is "the dad planet" (and we all have daddy issues) because it's making sure you're doing what you came here to do. Saturn is a minimalist, all about contraction, limits, structure, focus, rules, and tenacity. Saturn is the planet of shoulds, shame, setting boundaries, and saying NO.

URANUS: Your rebellious innovation is here. If you're gonna think outside the box, Uranus will be how you do it, with a dash of independent eccentricity. Uranus asks: "Where am I not free?" and then creates a revolution in that part of your life, in the name of freedom.

NEPTUNE: Reply hazy; try again. This is the planet of deception, mystery, magic, creativity, spirituality, illusion, acting, and the supernatural. Check here for secrets, addictions, and surprising help from beyond!

PLUTO: I call Pluto the TOWER card. If you know tarot, you get the picture. This is a powerful generational planet of transformation. The sign it's in, in your chart, represents what your age group came to transmute, kill off, or forever change in our world! NBD. ;)

YOUR MIDHEAVEN: Noted on your chart as MC, this is the ambition for your higher calling and your public career reputation.

YOUR NORTH NODE: Your destiny. Your life's purpose. All the things beyond your perceived limits and practiced beliefs. As challenging as writing with your non-dominant hand. Doable, but quite uncomfortable to get used to!

planetary rulers:

Each sign has a ruler. That's a planet whose energy is in charge of that sign's HOW (remember, the planet is the WHAT, the sign is the HOW, and the house is the WHERE it all shows up). Using traditional rulership, we've got 7 planets and luminaries that rule the 12 signs. What kind of energy is dominant in your chart? Which planets make up the vibe of your Life-Car? (Review my free trainings What Your Birthday Says About You and Chart Harmony 101 if you're not sure.) Are the nooks and crannies of your natal chart (and therefore your personality) starting to make more sense now?

Consider that your Chart Ruler is likely in a sign that is ruled by another planet. THAT combination actually flavors how your personality expresses (the house influences WHERE your energy is most focused). There are so many layers to this! I love it! I hope you're loving it too. Remember to come jam with us at Discord! We'd love to meet you and your Life-Car.

Hey, here's our handy formula for basic astrology again: The planet is the WHAT, the sign is HOW, and the house is the WHERE. Example: A Venus in Leo in the 11th House (Bonnie Gillespie) = all the loving and valuing and beautifying is done in a very grand, passionate, public way specifically in broader communities and in service of utopian, innovative, progressive visions for us all. As your Chart Harmony exploration deepens, you'll begin to uncover your own loglines for all the parts of your chart!

1st HOUSE: Your personality, your body, and the impression that you make all live here (it's the house of your Rising sign AKA Ascendant). This is the only house that's ALL ABOUT YOU.

2nd HOUSE: This is where we find your values, your desires, your enoughness, your belongings (AKA your "stuff"), and your income earned from working.

3rd HOUSE: Your closest friends, siblings, cousins, and networking activities can be found here, plus communication, social media, and local travel.

4th HOUSE: Your family of origin, home, heritage, "unseen parent," family land, and ancestry are rooted here. Look here for beliefs you inherited too!

5th HOUSE: This is where you'll find your creative expression, joy, friskiness, risk-taking, gambling, drama, childlike glee, affairs, and outright pleasure in life. Your children show up in this house too.

6th HOUSE: Daily practices, your health and fitness, acts of service, and the jobby-job work you do (not your True North purpose in life) are here. This includes your co-workers and employees. Pets hang out in this house as well.

7th HOUSE: This is where partnerships live (both business and romantic partnerships, always 1:1). This can include your coaches, your therapists, your agents... and even your enemies! You're never solo in this house.

8th HOUSE: Your money issues are here (usually other people's money, investments in you, or loans you take out and taxes you pay) as well as your shadow work, secrets, sexual intimacy, death/transformation, and legacy.

9th HOUSE: Your love for learning; higher education; traveling great distances; and exploring things like religion, publishing, astrology, and law are anchored here.

10th HOUSE: Your chart's most visible stage! This is your public image, higher calling, and how you're seen in the world. It's where your True North, your ambition, and your brand meet! Issues with your "public parent" are here too.

11th HOUSE: This is your house of community, friends, tech, activism, an idealistic view of the future, and innovative dreams for the greater good of the collective.

12th HOUSE: "The house of your undoing," this is where your (karmic, mental health) secrets, thoughts on loop, and confinements live. But also so much magic, like mysticism, spirituality, and intuition! Institutions (from hospitals to jails to retreat venues to rehab to systems we live by) hang out here too.

the houses at a glance:

Because we all learn differently, here's a graphic depiction of the same basic information as you saw in list form on the previous page. NOTE: We all have all 12 houses! Also worth noting: No matter what house system you use, your 1st house (1H) is the one that hosts your Rising (Ascendant, ASC, AC, or AS, depending on what software or app you use to render your chart). 1H is the most PERSONAL of all 12 houses. All other houses have "co-stars" sharing the space!

Even without someone's birthtime or birthplace, we can calculate what sort of year they're having using numerology. To calculate your personal year, use ONLY the month and day you were born (do NOT include the year you were born). Combine the month and day of your birth with the current year, adding everything down 'til you get to a single digit. That's your numerology for the year! (To learn all about your birth number, head over to my free training called What Your Birthday Says About You. I've gotchu!)

Let's do my numerology for 2025 as an example for you to follow. My birthday is July 11th (remember, we don't use the birth year for this).

$$\begin{aligned}7 + 1 + 1 + 2 + 0 + 2 + 5 &= \\18 \text{ (but that's still not a single digit, so...)} & \\1 + 8 &= 9\end{aligned}$$

2025, for me, has a numerical signature of 9. Okay!

1 YEAR: New beginnings! Planting seeds with all the drive and enthusiasm for initiating that the 1 year is famous for creating. Be purposeful with the goals you set and the projects, relationships, and commitments you begin this year, as they'll be the foundation for your life and work for the next 9 years.

2 YEAR: Receptive energy! Now it's all about nurturing the seeds you planted last year. My mother called this the "abort or knit booties" year because we are either digging up in doubt what we planted in faith... or we're activating the divine emotional mind-body to help those little seeds grow strong!

3 YEAR: Manifestation time! The seeds you planted in your 1 year and nurtured in your 2 year are now sprouting. You're in a creative, collaborative, social year, so enjoy the outer expression of those goals now shining through.

4 YEAR: You better work! This is a year for rolling up your sleeves and putting in the work. Basically, if there's hard labor involved to support the seeds you planted in your 1 year, this is the year you'll really be able to do it. Focus, drive, and making stuff happen are all a part of this year.

5 YEAR: Party time! This year brings a focus on play, freedom, joy-seeking, writing, and risk-taking. You'll be experiencing a burst of rebellious, creative energy while you do some celebrating for the seeds you planted in your 1 year.

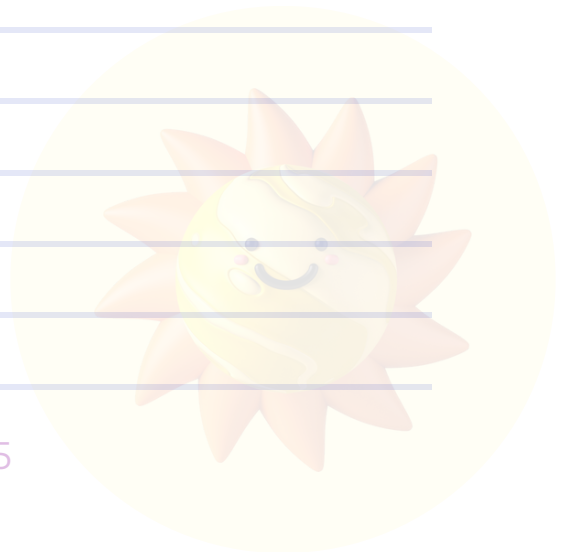

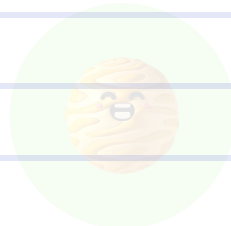

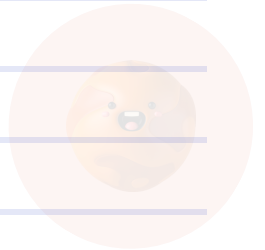

6 YEAR: Get your house in order! This is a year of repair, domesticity, family, and intimate relationships. You'll be experiencing a healing while you slow down to do some community-building around the seeds you planted in your 1 year.

7 YEAR: Cocoon time! Now, it's all about the inner work, turning deep within, and really stitching together who you want to be in the world going forward. This can be a lonely year if you use this energy to isolate (you will need your alone time to get clear and connected with your spiritual gifts). This is a year of building courage. Because the following year will be when you spread your wings around the seeds you planted in your 1 year, the work you do to have the healthiest chrysalis experience possible in a 7 year is important!

8 YEAR: The butterfly emerges! It's time to focus on power as you reveal the inner work you've been doing, step into your potential, and become fully seen. This will be a great year for investing in yourself, basking in the manifestation of all you've created, and taking responsibility for anything that isn't working.

9 YEAR: Closure! The current 9-year cycle will be wrapping up this year. It's time to declutter, prune, and let things go that you'd prefer not to bring with you into your next 9-year cycle. Look for endings, goodbyes, and clarity that's feeling right on time.

the woo I'm watching:

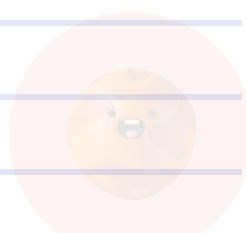

the generational planets:

The planet is the WHAT, the sign is the HOW, and the house is the WHERE it all shows up in your life. Retrograde illusion turns that WHAT inward. Using the keywords in this workbook, what do you suspect the generational planets will bring to specific parts of your chart (and your life) in 2025?

Pluto will revolutionize:

Neptune will tell stories:

Uranus will disrupt:

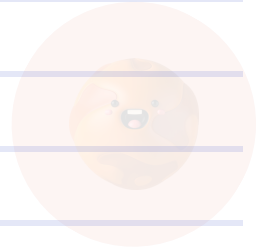

the social planets:

The planet is the WHAT, the sign is the HOW, and the house is the WHERE it all shows up in your life. Retrograde illusion turns that WHAT inward. Using the keywords in this workbook, what do you suspect the social planets will bring to specific parts of your chart (and your life) in 2025?

Saturn will structure:

Jupiter will expand:

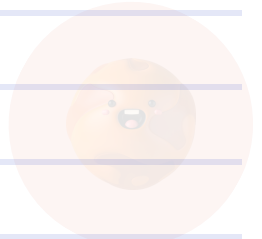

the personal planets:

The planet is the WHAT, the sign is the HOW, and the house is the WHERE it all shows up in your life. Retrograde illusion turns that WHAT inward. Using the keywords in this workbook, what do you suspect the personal planets will bring to specific parts of your chart (and your life) in 2025?

Mars will ignite:

Venus will magnetize:

Mercury will communicate:

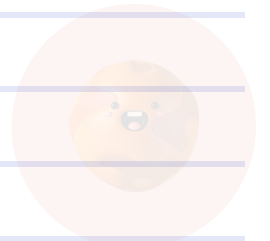

the luminaries:

The planet is the WHAT, the sign is the HOW, and the house is the WHERE it all shows up in your life. Retrograde illusion turns that WHAT inward. Using the keywords in this workbook, what do you suspect the luminaries will bring to specific parts of your chart (and your life) in 2025?

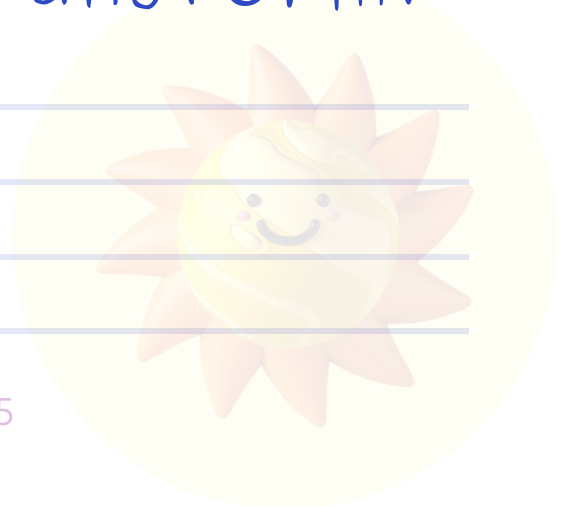

the Sun will spotlight:

the Moon will sensitize:

the eclipses will transform:

numerology will add:

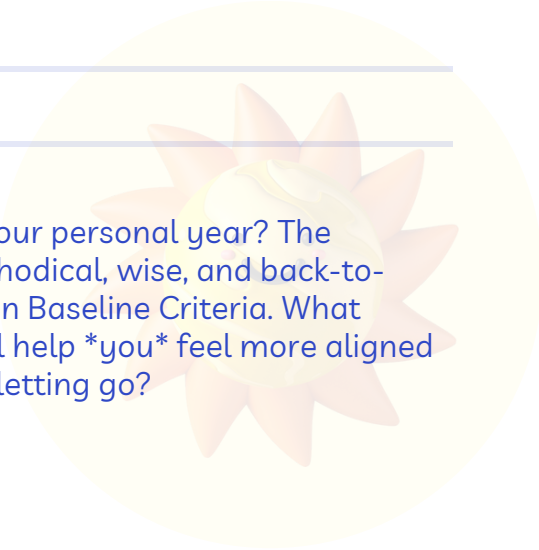

The numerology for 2025 is a 9. YOUR numerology for 2025 is quite likely a different number, though. Using my example for adding down to my personal number for the year (on page 21), you'll notice I cycle with the year itself (handy, huh?) and I will be IN a 9 year during a 9 year.

Using the numbers that make up 2025 and just your birth MONTH and birth DAY (not your birth year at all), add down to a single digit to get your personal year's numerological signature.

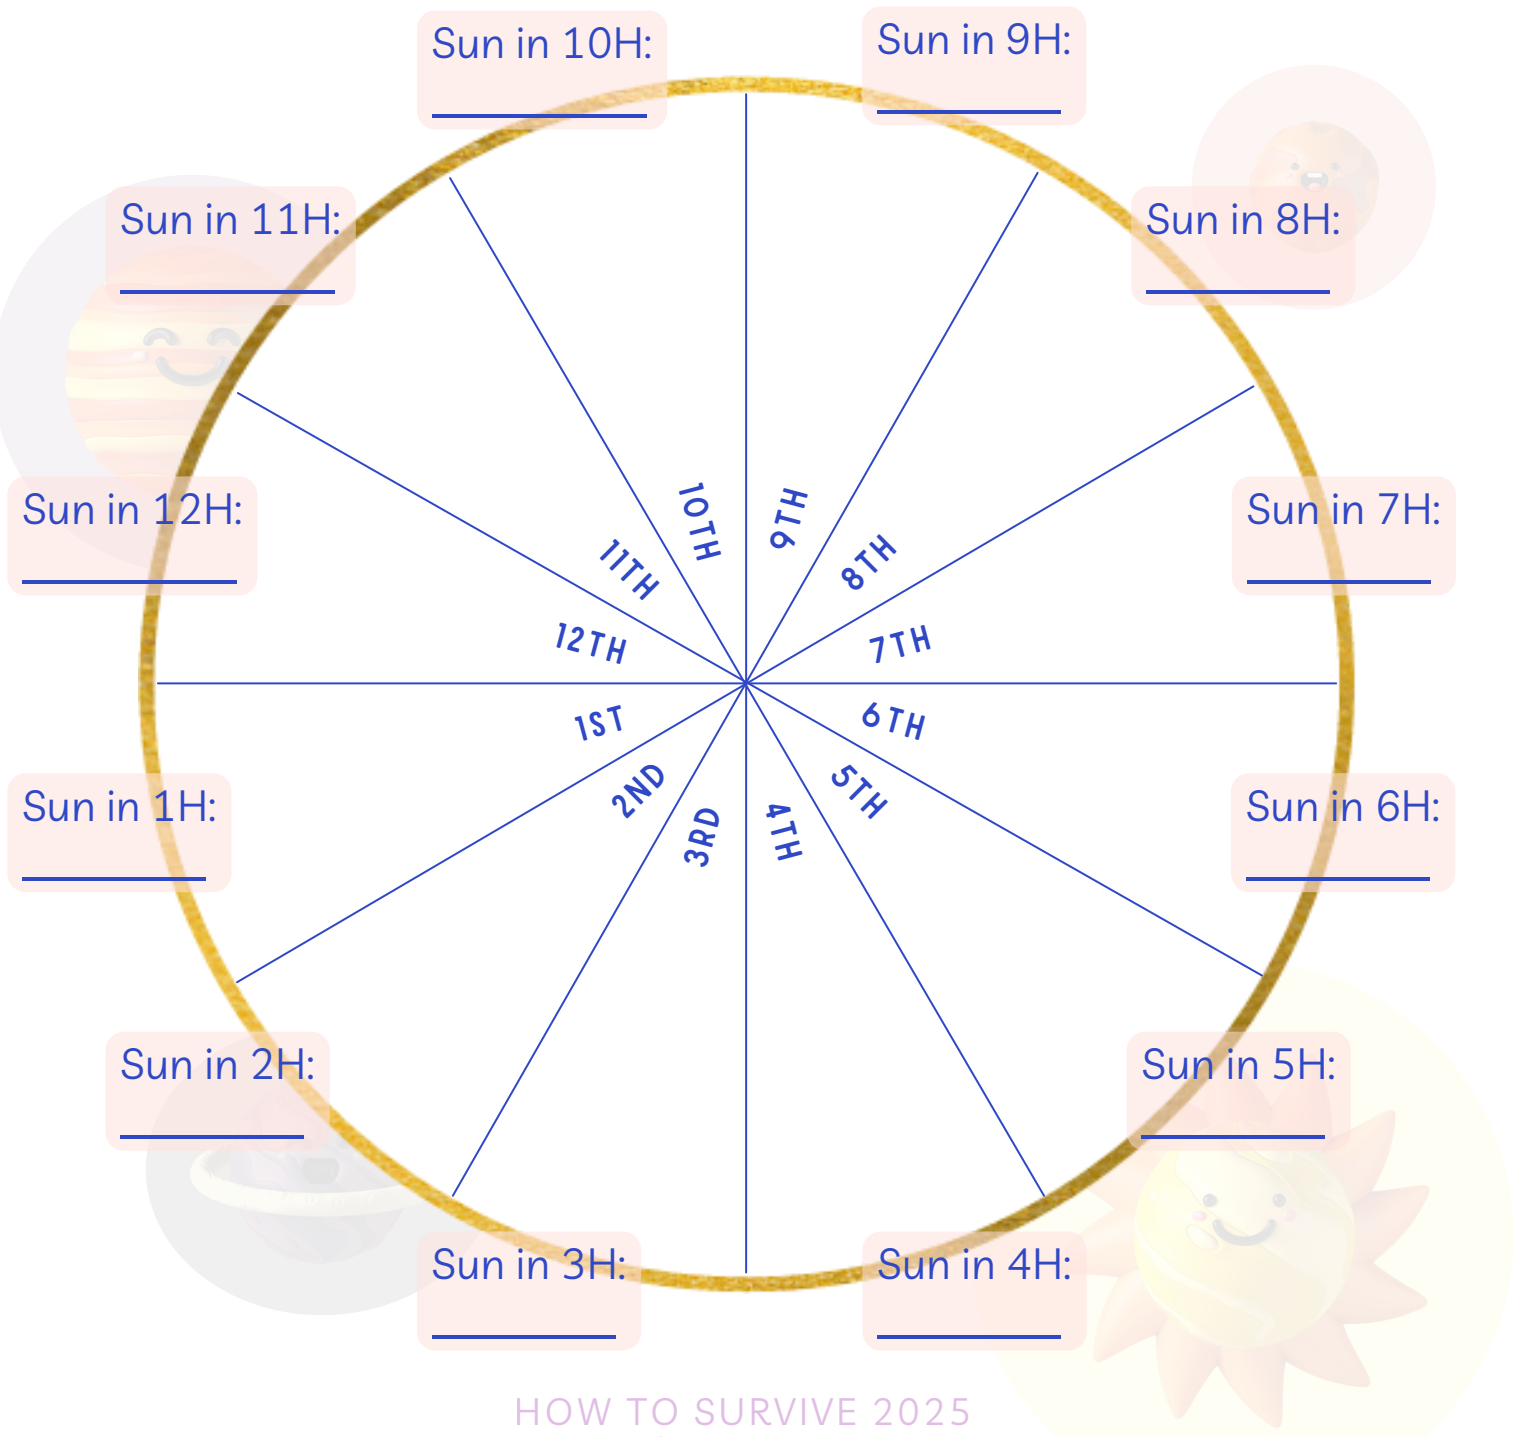

Using the keywords in this workbook, what does the overlay of the numerology of your personal year feel like, when you know the year itself is serving up the energy of 9? How can you get these vibes working together? What can they learn from one another? What can YOU learn from all of it?

Bonus points: What's the Chart Harmony color signature for your personal year? The numerology of the year itself (9) is BLACK. That's a serious, methodical, wise, and back-to-basics vibe. It's a great year for decluttering, pruning, focusing on Baseline Criteria. What remedies support this emphasis on closing things off? What will help you feel more aligned with this energy, so that you can make the most of this year of letting go?

During our webinar, we'll work through mapping out 2025 together, using the natal chartwheel as our guide. To prep yourself, go ahead and match the signs to the houses below. For example, if you have Gemini Rising, you would write "Gemini" in the house labeled "1st" below, then "Cancer" in the house labeled "2nd" below, then "Leo" in the house labeled "3rd" below, and so on. We'll do the fill-in-the-blanks dates during the webinar.

your Life-Car & Chart Ruler:

The Big 3 (your natal Sun, Moon, and Rising) are on a roadtrip all life long in what we'll call your Life-Car. They each have a different job to do and, when it comes right down to it, it's your Chart Ruler (the ruling planet of your Rising sign) that oversees the most powerful role: THE DRIVER. In creating Chart Harmony, we can support just your Chart Ruler, any of The Big 3, or the whole Life-Car! Your Life-Car is a Bentley, apparently. Thanks, Canva stock images! 😊

The Navigator (riding shotgun with the map): Your Sun knows where we're headed. Your Sun is in _____ (sign) in the _____ house.

The Backseat Driver ("Are we there yet?"): Your Moon is in charge of getting everyone's needs met. Your Moon is in _____ (sign) in the _____ house.

Chart Ruler (the ruling planet of your Rising sign): Where THIS planet lives says a lot about your personality, your priorities, and how you DO your DOINGS.

Your _____ (Chart Ruler) is in _____ (sign) in the _____ house.

The Driver (the one in control of how we get there): Your Rising (or Ascendant, AC, ASC) and its ruler have the most power. You have _____ (sign) Rising.

Prioritizing Chart Harmony rituals for your Chart Ruler — especially in ways that feel great for the sign and house it's in — will create ease and flow in your everyday life. I've got FREE tips for connecting with your Chart Ruler at this link.

who rules the road:

Now that you've got The Big 3 all identified in your Life-Car for the roadtrip of your life, it's time to consider relationship management between what could be very different energies. Roadtrips can be amazing... or miserable. It comes down to clear expectations, open understanding, and working with your strengths! What kind of Chart Harmony does your Life-Car crave? Use the keywords from pages 14-20 in this workbook to get started.

What are the 3 signs in your Life-Car? And what are some of their keywords?

What are the 3 elements in your Life-Car? And what are some of their keywords?

What are the 3 modalities in your Life-Car? And what are some of their keywords?

What about your Chart Ruler (the ruling planet of the driver of your Life-Car)? What sign is it in? What are some of its keywords? What house is it in? Bonus points for knowing its condition (essential dignity; whether it was retrograde, out-of-bounds, in its house of joy, or afflicted at your birth). Can you feel the influence of this ruling planet in the roadtrip of your life?

Once you've mapped out the signs to the houses using your chartwheel, and once you've labeled the signs in your Life-Car, it's time to plop some info into this table. Bonus points for adding any keywords about the signs, elements, modalities, houses, planets, and luminaries at play here (use the language on pages 14-20 of this workbook to start).

aligned aftercare:

This webinar is your starting point for connecting more deeply with yourself as we move through 2025. There is so much more we can do together using the Chart Harmony method. Hopefully our time together has you feeling inspired for inviting more balance and ease into your life, whether guided or on your own. As you've observed, astrology is incredibly complex and potentially overwhelming. Here's what's cool, though: You live your chart over your whole life! We can look at the various components that make up your chart individually, but you do not LIVE THEM that way. It's all layered and happening over time, always.

Chart Harmony helps me have less bumpy experiences with some of the more problematic parts of my chart. Specifically, I've done such big healing work with both Mars and Saturn in recent years that I have a totally different relationship with the both of them that has created tangible shifts in my lived experience. I've been able to embrace living in alignment with my North Node in Pisces (you're witnessing that). Simply doing regular rituals, I'm not scared of living my biggest life. I'm in less physical pain. I no longer "silo" my more extreme feelings away. I now know how to USE formerly problematic energies with the help of these planets. All layers of my life have benefited from the Chart Harmony remedies and my consistency with them. This can become true for you as well. You just have to START.

On the following page (and during the webinar), I've provided a few options for you to consider, should continuing the Chart Harmony work feel right for you at this time.

I'm especially excited to invite you in to join our monthly small-group mastermind called Live Your Chart! You can check it out and enroll at LiveYourChart.com (if you use the code WEBINAR at checkout, you'll get $22 off your first month's membership). You'll get immediate access to our series on Health Astrology and Relationship Astrology, our growing resource library for determining the overall wellness of your natal chart, and the latest Aligned Hustle Calendar. Each month, we meet over Zoom to go over upcoming woo weather, do a deep-dive on a dedicated topic area, and of course do plenty of live Q&A. We also have private discussion areas at Discord and Teachable for between-session support. Thank you for checking this out. Hope to see you inside!

Thanks for being a part of Chart Harmony today. Whether we move forward together from here or not, I so appreciate your co-creative role in this magical experience!

aftercare I'm intrigued by:

questions you may have:

Obviously, this is a LOT, and you've probably taken pages of notes during the webinar too. Still, here are some typical questions, answered, in case you find yourself asking 'em.

Q: Okay, so we're using Whole Sign Houses for our charts now?

A: Yep, to keep it simple, we're working with your chart using the Whole Sign House System! Placidus may be the default house system in the site or app you typically use to render your chart, and that's certainly fine for interpreting your chart outside of this free training. In using the much longer-ago established Whole Sign House System, we're assuring the most straightforward way for you to SEE yourself in the stars. The Whole Sign House System democratizes where you were born (no more advantaging the royals who paid the astrologers) while making calculations far more straightforward, because each house starts at the same place a new sign starts. Yay!

Q: I don't know my exact time of birth. Am I screwed?

A: Not at all! Ideally, you'll be able to find out what time you were born from your birth certificate or by checking with a member of your family who remembers some details about the event, like whether the sun had come up yet! Some folks have luck calling the hospital at which they were born to access their archived records. If these options don't work out for you, there is a process called rectification that some astrologers are able to do for a fee. This is a process of studying several significant events in your life while interviewing you to determine the most likely range of birth times. For now, work with what you have! If you're not able to get your birth time sorted out, you can still have a wonderful experience getting to know yourself better. You won't be sure of your RISING, which means the houses may all feel off for you, but you'll have the planets in their right signs, and that's plenty to get aligned for an exploration that serves you well. For the sake of rendering your chart without knowing the time, choose a birth time that puts your Moon or your Sun in the 1st house. If you don't know how to do that, just choose sunrise.

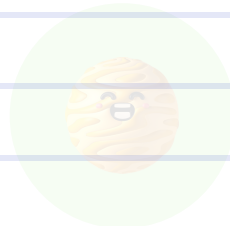

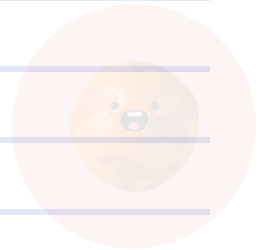

Q: There's a tiny R next to one of the planets on my chartwheel. What does this mean?

A: That R indicates retrograde illusion (the varying orbit shapes and speeds of planets we're not living on making it appear as if they're moving backward from time to time as we ALL orbit the Sun). Any planet on your chartwheel with a tiny R next to it was retrograde at the time of your birth. The fun part about this is that when that same planet goes retrograde throughout your life, you're actually less distressed by its effects than other folks may be. Overall, the WHAT of that planet will likely have your focus turned more inward in life. Also, your development in the area of that planet's WHAT may be later in life.

Q: Nearly half of my houses are totally empty on the chartwheel. What does this mean?

A: It actually means you're like most people. :) The typical experience is to have a few planets or placements clustering in one quadrant of your chart or even together in a single sign or house "stellium" (clumping our lessons and gifts so they can serve one another and experience transits with similar timing) and then open spaces. Of course, even "empty" houses are in specific signs in your natal chart, so there's definitely energy there! In fact, depending on what's directly opposite that house on the chartwheel, that "empty" energy could be exactly what you're meant to use to balance out all that activity on the other side of your chart. Cool, huh?

questions I still have:

final thoughts:

I often hear that astrology is overwhelming. So many signs and planets and houses (Oh, my!) and that's before we even get into aspects and transits and retrogrades and fixed stars and annual profections and secondary progressions and zodiacal releasing and firdaria and, and, and.

This is why I adore bringing my childhood love of astrological storytelling into the here and now. We can make meaning of so many of the parts of our charts! But the whole point of this exploration is for us to be empowered, to have sovereignty, to lean into what we may already be feeling is right... confident that it's exactly what our souls intended that we do!

While I believe in magic, I also love data. I love tracking patterns. And I especially love when I notice that data backs up something magical. The placebo effect is scientifically backed. Even when we know we're taking a placebo for a headache, the brain will send signals that relieve us from perceived pain. So while some folks may roll their eyes at my adherence to planetary hours or about some of the rituals I swear by in order to achieve Chart Harmony, I know what works for me. Hopefully you're now feeling more confident around your woo-curious setpoint, too.

And when you get turned around? Just come back to these tools. Connect with the work you've put into this with me, align with the energies that are here to support you, and breathe. Trust your KNOWING. You've got this!

Faced with no career and no college degree, my resourceful, suddenly-single mother Charlsie decided that the hobby she had picked up — to explore WHY she ended up having an unplanned late-in-life baby (me) and WHY her husband of 28 years bailed — might be more than just a hobby. She booked her first paid reading in 1977 and earned $20. Twenty years later, the Oprah folks called to book her on the show's "Remembering Your Spirit" segment. Charlsie's enoughness was low, so of course she said no.

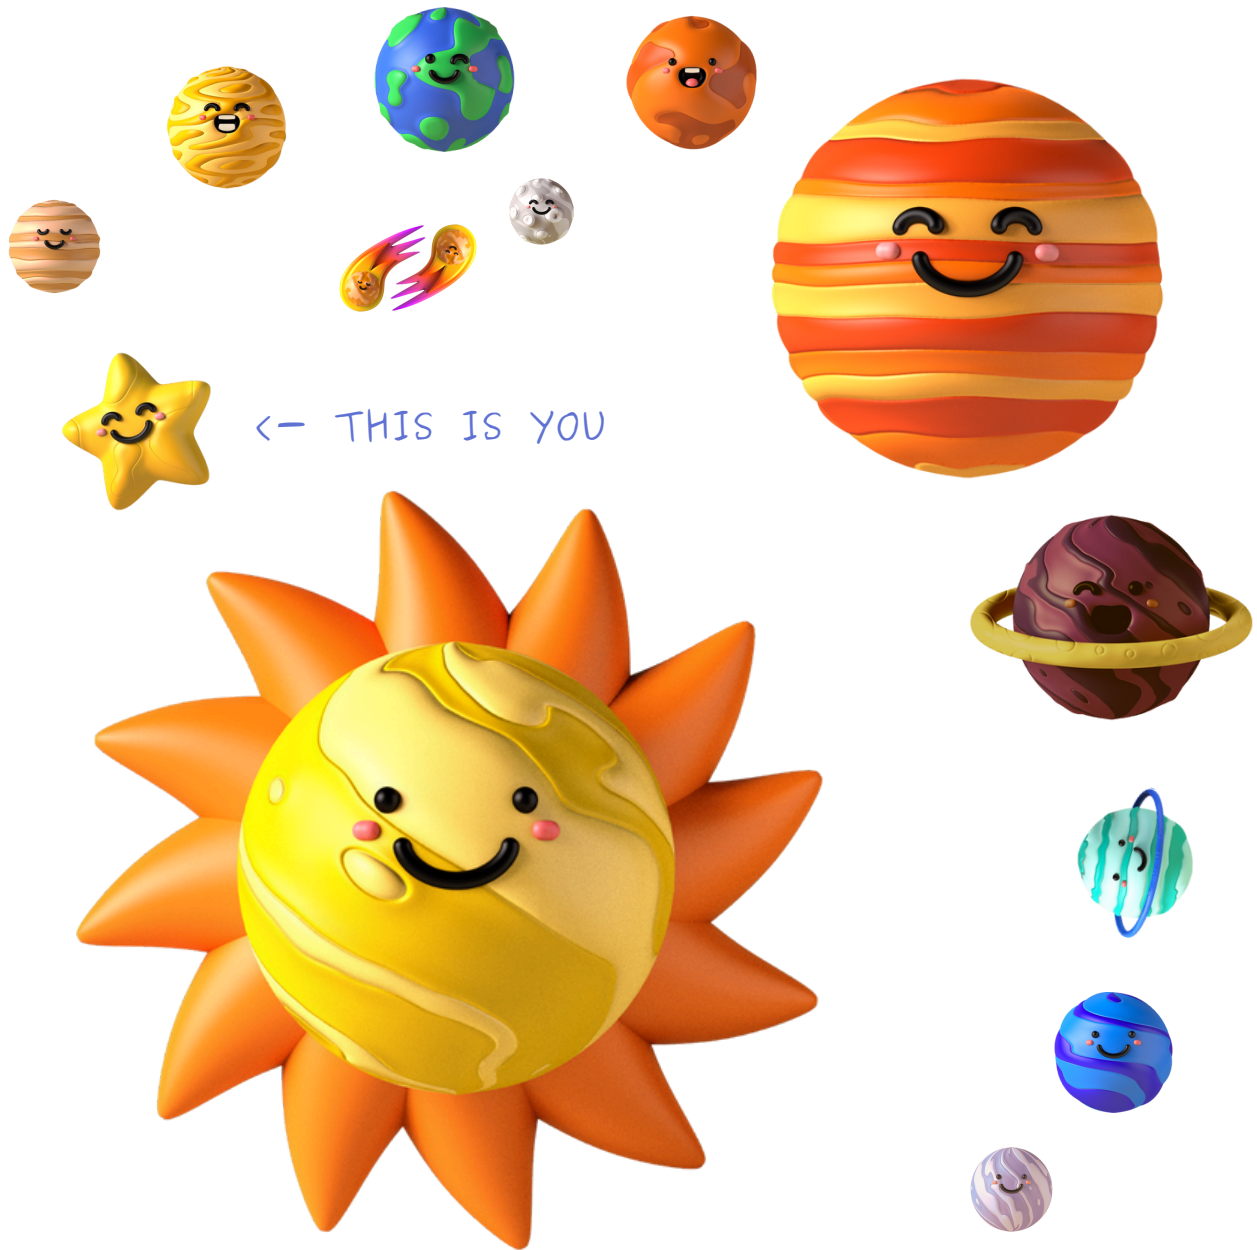

As a kid growing up, I remember coming home from school, bullied, and instead of the usual, "Oh, honey, they're just jealous," my mother would say, "Oh, honey, you know your Venus is afflicted in Leo." I've spent my life very much aware of the rhythms of planetary influence and certainly how the Moon can make one day a brilliant get-sh*t-done day and then it switches into a sign that makes everything feel sloth-like.

Over time, I've gotten less private about my woo-woo upbringing as my showbiz clients have asked, "What does it mean when you say that about how you decide it's the right time to do X or Y or Z?" and so I share a little bit here and there and, well, we've now reached a point where it's such a thing that I have creatives booking coaching sessions with me NOT just to do the Self-Management for Actors work on which I've built my empire, but to have their charts done! Turns out I'm really good at it! So... Chart Harmony is a reclaiming of my New Age childhood. And a tribute to my mom.

I promise not to say no when Oprah calls.
